P R E F A C E.

WHEN our forefathers came to this country, they introduced at once a Registry of Deeds, or a uniform system of recording land-conveyances; and they also established a Probate Office, to contain the entire settlement of the estates of deceased persons, — the original probate of each will being for ever conclusive on all parties, both as to real and personal property. In both these particulars, they were two centuries in advance of the mother country, where such registries of conveyances were only locally and partially introduced, and where wills were required to be proved over again in each suit respecting real estate. The county of Suffolk consists of the city of Boston, and the small adjoining town of Chelsea and its various subdivisions. It formerly included also the several towns now constituting Norfolk County. Suffolk County, therefore, means Boston and its immediate vicinity. Our registry of deeds now numbers 735 volumes, of which the first 20 contain all the deeds prior to A.D. 1700. The deeds of the next hundred years come down only to Lib. 200. Those of the first quarter of this century reach to Lib. 300; and the last thirty years have added more volumes than were made during the whole former period. It is to this collection of Suffolk deeds that I refer by L. and f. All the records of Suffolk County were removed to Canada during the Revolution; and two volumes — L. 112 and L. 114 (for the years 1766, 1768) — were not returned. In these missing volumes, lawyers have presumed to be recorded all conveyances of or before that period which cannot be found, — a convenient hypothesis, which however, it must be confessed, would make these two volumes more bulky than any twenty others. It is an interesting fact, that, though these records have existed among us for two centuries, it is only within the present year that an appropriation of twelve thousand dollars has been made for a new and perfect Index since A.D. 1800, in which all the various surnames are to be arranged alphabetically. This Index will be of incalculable value, and will supersede for ever a vast amount of irksome labor.

The existence of these records has produced among us a branch of the legal profession known as conveyancers, and examiners of titles to real estate. On the completion of my law-studies, my tastes led me to this pursuit; and I have now fifty-five autograph folio volumes, of five hundred pages each, of these abstracts of titles. Beginning my researches in 1827, before the registry had become very voluminous, I, in every instance, traced back the estate to the settlement of the town; whereas, at present, conveyancers scarcely ever extend their investigations back of the present century. I have thus a familiarity with the names of the early owners of real estate among us which my successors have never obtained or sought for. Further, our law permits an attachment of real estate on mesne process to secure a debt; and I have an alphabetical list of all those whose estates have been thus encumbered since 1831. As it is now provided that record-books of attachments shall be kept by the clerks of the several courts, no such private list exists anywhere else.

In connection with these my professional researches, I have now in my possession strictly alphabetical indices, to the extent of three thousand pages, of names of persons who have been parties to conveyances from the settlement of the country, or defendants in suits in our courts, or who have taken the benefit of the late Bankrupt Law of the United States, or whose estates have been administered upon in the Probate Office.

I also own the original editions of Pope's "Iliad" and "Odyssey," in eleven large quarto volumes (1715-25); Thomson's "Seasons," both the original edition of 1730, and a very rare one illustrated by Bartolozzi, published in 1797; and the Macklin Bible, in six large quarto volumes, published in 1800, of which it is believed that only one other copy exists in this country. These works contain long lists of subscribers in England and Scotland. Many of the names embraced in these volumes and in our early records are now unknown among us.

"Miscellanies, in Prose and Verse, by Mary Jones," was published at Oxford in 1740, in the first style of typography of the day. This work is dedicated to "The Princess Royal and of Orange;" and all the nobility and chief gentry are among the subscribers. It is in the possession of Charles Sprague, the poet; and has been kindly placed at my disposal as quite a treasury of odd names. It is remarkable that a volume containing at least one piece which no lady would now read, should have been, only a century ago, written by a lady, and universally admired by the most refined and cultivated of the land. Who was Mary Jones?

I am indebted to Thomas J. Lee, Esq., of this city, for a printed subscription-list for Chauchard's maps of Germany, Italy, &c., — a work published under the like royal and noble patronage, in London, A.D. 1800.

The venerable Charles Lowell, D.D., voluntarily sent to me several pages of names of members of the West Church in Boston during the last century; all of which, however, I was gratified to find that I had in my own records.

There is, in the Massachusetts Historical Society, a catalogue of the books in the library of Harvard College selected for the especial use of the undergraduates, printed in 1773. Of this collection, scarcely one book in ten is now seen or heard of. It has furnished me with several remarkable names. It recommends the "History of England, 5 vols. 8vo, by Mrs. Catherine Macauley;" of whom Dr. Johnson said, "There was one Mrs. Macauley in this town, — a great republican." OZANAM'S "Cursus Mathematicus" has a less familiar sound to our ears than Macauley's "History of England."

The names on tombs are chiefly from Tissington's "Epitaphs," London, 1857; a few being obtained from Dr. Johnson's "Collection of Epitaphs," London, 1806.

The early Colonial Records, recently printed by authority of the Commonwealth, in six splendid quarto volumes, contain very many of the most curious names in the following collection; viz., all those to which ancient dates are affixed.

Within a few weeks, the London Directory for 1858 was sent to me by Frederick W. Thayer, Esq.; but its appalling dimensions, and the progress which I had already made in printing this edition, have prevented my availing myself of his courtesy to any considerable extent.

The great work of Agassiz, so honorable to the country of his adoption, of which the first two volumes appeared in November, 1857, has a long list of subscribers throughout all the States of the Union.

The financial crisis of 1857 led to the publication of lists of those who became insolvent in all our chief cities.

From these sources, and from the perusal of the city Directories of Boston and Salem, of New York and Philadelphia, the Business Directories of New England and Canada, the American Almanacs, the Navy Register for 1849, the College Catalogues of Harvard and Yale, and of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, I derived the materials for this publication. Its preparation solaced the weary hours of a long confinement. It gradually became too voluminous for what I at first designed it,—a series of newspaper articles; and it is printed in its present form, in the hope, that, although it possesses no permanent interest or value, others may derive from its perusal somewhat of the amusement which it has afforded to myself.

In 1857, I printed, for private distribution, a few copies of a collection of surnames prepared almost exclusively from my own volumes of Records, and the works in my library. A kind notice of my little volume from the other side of the Atlantic (“Household Words,” 1857) awakened a curiosity respecting it beyond the circle of my personal friends, and induces me to publish a small edition. It is dedicated to a conveyancer of 1626, of whose claims upon me I first became aware from a late publication of J. Wingate Thornton, Esq. It has, I trust, been rendered more complete than the first by the use of the numerous additional materials above referred to, and should now perhaps be entitled “Directories Digested; or, the Romance of the Registry.”

SUFFOLK SURNAMES.

CHAPTER I.

ORIGIN OF NAMES.

SURNAMES are known to have been assumed, in some instances, before the Norman conquest; but they did not become general in England until two or three centuries later. Every name, no doubt, originally had a meaning, or was at first assumed or imposed from its real or supposed fitness, from some accidental circumstance, or from mere caprice. Each individual is distinguished from his fellows only by his name. But for this system, history and biography could scarcely exist.

Christian names being given in infancy, and by friends and relatives, cannot, as a general rule, have bad significations, or be associated with crime and misfortune. What child was ever christened JUDAS or DIDO? It is otherwise, however, with surnames. These will be found to be of all shades, from the best to the worst, the most pleasing to the most ridiculous.

They originated later in life, after the character and habits of the individual had been formed, and after he had engaged in some permanent occupation, trade, or pursuit. They were given by the community in which he dwelt, — by enemies as well by friends.

Surnames are traceable to several chief sources. The Christian names of parents: thus JOHN, the son of DICK, becomes JOHN DICKSON. Dignities, offices, and occupations: thus JOHN, the squire, sergeant, smith, or baker, becomes JOHN SQUIRE, JOHN SERGEANT, JOHN SMITH, or JOHN BAKER. Countries, towns, particular localities of residence or ownership, including signs of inns: these local names are by far the most numerous of all, — perhaps more numerous than all others together. Bodily peculiarities, and virtues and vices, including names of beasts, birds, and insects (as wolf, fox, parrot, bee), or inanimate objects (as stone, flint, marble, &c.), a resemblance to which is suggested by these personal or mental traits: these, likewise, constitute a very numerous class. Accidental circumstances or incidents: thus the being born at a certain season of the year, or in a certain month, or on a certain day, or at a certain hour, may have been the origin of the families of SPRING, WINTER, MAY, MONDAY, SUNRISE. Mr. NINE may have been a ninth child. Foundlings are often unkindly dealt with, being named from the rather objectionable buildings in which they are found exposed.

Fortunes are amassed and dissipated ; dynasties rise, and pass away : but one's name (slightly changed or impaired, it may be, by time) is yet safely transmitted from father to son, — an inheritance of to-day from a remote and otherwise unknown ancestry.

CHAPTER II.

REMARKABLE NAMES, — FROM LIFE AND DEATH; LOVE AND FEAR; HOGGISH NAMES; SHORT AND LONG; &c.

THE names of persons, Christian and surname, form a very curious subject. Our records furnish some most remarkable specimens of them both. At Queens-town, C.W., lives A. MIRRACLE. LIFE died out many years ago, though we yet have Mr. LIVING. BIOT, the name of the distinguished French mathematician, is derived from the Greek word signifying "life." COFFINS, GRAVES, TOOMEY, and TOMBS are numerous. We have one BIER. DEATH and SLAUGHTER had formerly some living representatives in our midst. DEATH, indeed, is one of our oldest families (1679), and is also found in Canada and at Cincinnati. A Mr. DEATH made a mortgage to the Life Insurance Company. Mr. SLAUGHTER was a commander in our navy, 1849. Seven families of this latter name live in Philadelphia.

TODTLEBEN, the name of the distinguished Russian general, means "dead-life." An English author, ILIVE, wrote in 1730-3. A domestic in the home of my boyhood (Salem, Mass.) was named MERCY DEADMAN. A Mr. DEADMAN lives at Delaware,

C.W.; Mr. DYDE, at Montreal. There is a living CORSE at Duxbury, Vt. Mr. CORSE, of Burlington, Iowa, subscribed for Agassiz' work. No less than five families of that name are found in Montreal; and families of CORPSE exist in England. Mr. MORS is a graduate of Harvard. In the New-York Directory are families of TODT (German for "dead"), CORSE, DEADMAN, and DEADY; also DUMSDAY (i.e., "day of judgment"). MATTHEW P. DEADY is Associate Justice of Oregon (1856); and a Mr. DEADY lives at Streetville, C.W.; Mr. BURYHILL, at Exeter, C.W. BONEHOUSE is found in Philadelphia (a name which seems equivalent to a grave); also families of CORSE, CORSEY, MORT, and TOMB. Mr. MUMMA is Chairman of a Committee of the Pennsylvania Legislature, October, 1857; and this name is also found in Dumbo, C.W. HANNAH BIRTHS was married at Woburn in 1649. NATALE is found in our Directory, and only one LAZARUS. Six families of LAZARUS, however, appear in Philadelphia.

The spirit of DEVOTION may yet be seen in our city churches, and his house is standing in an adjoining town; but he is no longer visible, in the flesh, "on 'Change." One SCRIPTURE had a suit in our Supreme Judicial Court, 1855; and this name, indeed, is very common in New England, being sometimes spelled SCRIPTER. There are, I hope, still many families of LOVE among us; but, with a single exception, they now walk about under another nomenclature.

Once they even gave names to our streets. Thus, Tilston Street was originally Love Lane. It also became a Christian name, here and elsewhere, among the descendants of these ancestors. LOVE RAWLINS owned real estate at the North End. In the Cathedral Church of Peterborough is a monument to JOHN LOVING, who died 1781. Some of our best illustrations of Irish character are from the pen of SAMUEL LOVER. I do not find CUPID as a Christian name; but I do find LOVEY and VENUS. We have Mr. AMOR HOLLINGWORTH; and AMORY is one of our first families. Mr. AMOUR was lost in the Central America, 1857. In New York, I find families of L'AMOUR, L'AMOUREAUX, &c.; and, in Philadelphia, there are twenty-seven families of LOVE. FEAR, I believe, has never been a surname among us: but we have Mr. FEARING; and Mrs. FEAR BOURNE was a landholder. Mr. FEAR lives at Elmira, C.W.; and Mr. FEARMAN, at Hamilton, C.W. We have among us the surname of HOPE, which is a name of great note in England.

There was an interesting family-group, the members of which respectively rejoiced in the names of CORD CORDIS, CORD WING, FATHERGONE DINELY, and DINELY WING. One of our thoroughfares was Hog Alley; but perhaps some will be surprised to learn that a Mr. PIGHOG appears in an early volume of our records. JONATHAN PIGG, of Dedham, is party to a deed in L. 78, f. 66. We have also HOGGERIDGE (1674), HOGSFLESH (1657), FARROW, HOEGG, HOGG, SHOATS (L. 90, f. 230), SWINEY, HAM, HAMM, BACON, and BRINE. CHOATE, though a distinguished, is not an imposing name. It is, perhaps, a corruption of SHOTE, a young pig; which name still exists in England. From a late review, we learn that a former pope had a name signifying HOGS-MOUTH. The poetic wreath encircles the brow of a Scotch HOGG. When an action was called into court not long since, a smile was produced by the announcement, that Mr. — appeared for GAMMON. Another Mr. FARROW is a barber at Lewiston, Me. Mr. LARD arrived here in the "Star of the West," from Panama, October, 1857; and a Mr. LARD lives in Philadelphia. JOHN WALLOWER & SON received a government contract for whiskey in Boston and New York, May, 1857. The name of SWIL-LAWAY occurs in our Middlesex records, being probably a corruption of SILLOWAY. THOMAS BRISTLEHAM, of Roxbury (September, 1857), shows a most swinish taste in nomenclature. In New York live families of HOGGS, STIES, SWILLING, SWEIN, and SWINEY. Mr. HOG, of that city, sells liquor. Mr. HOGBEN (HOG-PEN?) lives at Toronto, C.W.; and WALLOWBURY, HOGWOOD, HAMS, and SHOAT, at Philadelphia. HOG-MIRE is a common name in Livingston County, N.Y.

Some names are very short. Mr. AI WHEAT made many deeds in an adjoining county. AI BLOOD is a baker. We had our BILL VOSE. In our Directory is Mr. SHOWE AR, from the Celestial Empire. Mr. ERNST

AU sells milk in New York. Using the initial letter only of his Christian name, he is Mr. E AU (the French for "water"). Mr. EY lives in Philadelphia, as do also three families of OX. I have met with SI ER; and this case always seemed to me the very essence of brevity. Even the Frenchman, Monsieur d'O, having, probably, a longer Christian name, must yield to this rival. SA & Co. failed in London, November, 1857, in the Brazilian trade. Mr. DEAS was graduated at West Point. Mr. TUELLS ought to be considered as a name of two letters only; and Mr. DEE, Mr. KAY, Mr. PEE,* and Mr. WYE, are obviously names of but one letter. Mr. IZARD is Governor of Nebraska. We have very many names of three letters only, such as those last mentioned; and ASH, ELM, BLY, CAR (L. 547), CAN, FAY, FAX, FOY, FOX, FRY, GAY, GAW, GOW, HAY, IDE, RAL, SKY, SLY, GUY, COP (1669), DAM, CAM, LAY, MAY, NAY, RAY, RAE, REA, WAY, WEY, TAY, ROY, COY, MOY, TOY, TAK, TEW, NUT, TYE, GEE, LEE, DOE, DOW, KAH, KOP, KER, LOW, MAN; PID, 1642; TED, 1648; HET, 1642; DUN, 1647; DOD, 1656; TYD, 1671; ELS, 1658; IUE, 1683; BEX, 1679; ONG, 1679; BEY, 1674; BUD, 1677; MUN, 1679; GOT, 1682; HIX, 1677; MOW, MOE, ORD, ORR, OXX, OCH, ECK, NEW, NIX, RIX, WAX, REX, LUG, URE, ROE, RUE, NAU, NYE, JOY, ELA, ELY, DIX, YEO, HOY, and HOX. Messrs. "BOX and COX" doubtless often visit the Museum together. Mr. COE figures extensively in various partnerships. Mr. HOE is not an agriculturist. EDGAR A. POE's song of the "Raven" is familiar to us all. Mr. MEE, of Jersey City, N.J., failed in October, 1857. Our Miss MEE, in October, 1857; married a husband who had prior claims upon him; and our Mr. MEE, unable to discriminate between meum and tuum, committed ten larcenies in November, 1857. Among the subscribers to Thomson's "Seasons," I find Mr. JEE and Mr. MEE; and both these names exist in New York. MEE is also found in Philadelphia. Mr. LUM lives at Derby, Conn., and also at Cambridgeport; Mr. LEW, at Lowell; Mr. YAM, at Lawrence; and Mr. YAW, at North Adams. We have HUC's "Chinese Empire;" URE's "Dictionary of the Arts." GUY's Hospital is one of the glories of London. Mr. GYE presides over the Italian Opera in that city. Mr. YEM lives there (1857).

* In 1857, a libel was pending to which S. J. PEE was a party.

Mr. ABY was a midshipman; and Henry Eld, jun., a lieutenant in our navy, 1849. Mrs. BEW subscribed for Miss JONES's book. Dr. JOHN DEE had great celebrity in his day. Our Mr. JOHN DEE made a deed (Lib. 584). We have now a Right Reverend Bishop KIP, at San Francisco; and KIP is found among the graduates of Yale, as is also ION. Miss HUI was married in Boston, June 25, 1857. Louisiana has its Judge BRY. Dr. DOX is agent of the State Prison in Michigan. Dr. UHL, of New York, circumvented Mrs. Cunningham in her maternity plot, 1857. Mr. VAL arrived here in a Cunard steamer, September, 1857; and Mr. KUL came here from California, October, 1857. Mr. AMM was lost in the "Central America," 1857. GAU published a splendid French work on Nubia. Bishop KEN was a learned and pious divine. JOHN PYM was a man of note in his day. No hero in human history has surpassed the Cid.

The New-York Directory contains many additional names of three letters, as ABT, ACH, ADT, AEU, AHL, AHM, ALT, ARL, ASE, AST, ATZ, AUG, AUL, AUR, BAL, BEK, BEM, BER, BLI, BOE, BOH, BOM, BOS, BOW, BUB, DAW, DAX, DOD, DON, DUN, EGE, ELZ, EPP, ETZ, ERB, ERK, ERY, IGO, IHL, ING, JEX, KAB, KAS, KIP, KOS, LEN, LOY, LUS, LUZ, MAS, MAX, MON, NAF, NAM, NEE, NEU, NEY, NIX, OLT, ORT, OTT, OTZ, PIA, PIM, QUA, RAD, RAU, REE, REK, ROH, RUC, SAM, SAX, SEE, SIM, SYZ, UCH, ULM, UNZ, URE, UTT, UTZ, VEY, VOY, WEX, WEY, WIE, YHM, YOE.

In Philadelphia, I find families of ABE, AHN, ANG, APP, ARD, ARN, ATZ, AUB, AXT, BOS, BRY, BIK, BOK, DOS, DUX, DUY, ELI, ENT, EPP, ERB, EBY, ILK, LAO, LOB, NAX, OHL, OPP, ORD, ORF, ORK, OST, OTT, REW, ROX, TEH, ULP, UNA, UNN, WEX, ZAH, ZEH.

Canada furnishes many names of three letters: EBY, LEY, EDE, ERB, HAW, BRY, UDY, JEX, SIM, SYM, YOU, BEW, ARL, EAD, OTT, ERY, URE, ENS, MOY, LOR, ETU, OKE, KEE, ELI, ENO, FEX, GEX, DEO, DEA, MOE, SYE, PIM, SAX, LOX, OEL, PEY, &c.

On the contrary, some names are of excessive length ;

as PARTHEIMULLER, HIGGINBOTTOM or HICKINBOTHAM, CHAMPERNOONE, COROLLEIAUER, BRECKENBURY, COLLINGBOURNE, CROWNINSHIELD, DWELSHAUVERS, ALLETZHAUSSEIR, KWINKELENBERG, FIENKENFLEUGEL, GREPENHAGEN, GUGGENHEIMER, DIFFENDAFFER, HACHEDOORIAN, CHRISTOPHERSON (1661), TOURTELOTTE, WHITTINGHAM, and WIGGLESWORTH. The English name of FEATHERSTONHAUGH goes beyond any of these. FEATHERSTONEHAUGH is found at Guelph, C.W.; CHRISTOPHERSON, at Montreal; and Messrs. BIDDENCLIPPER, OHRONGLOWEIS, and STRACHATINISTRY, at Philadelphia. A married lady of Boston (Mrs. F.) was, in 1838, about to sign a deed, releasing her dower (L. 434, f. 295). I asked her name. Her husband said that she used the initial A, but that her name was "ALDEBARONTIPHOSCOFORNIA." This name is probably the longest that a parent ever inflicted on a child.

CHAPTER III.

SPECIMENS OF CHRISTIAN NAMES.

I HAVE known a lady with a masculine Christian name. Her father, tired of waiting for a son, had made a vow to himself, that his next child, of whatever sex, should be named JOHN; and he kept his vow at the expense of a daughter.* Sometimes a male Christian name is given to a daughter by mistake. Thus, a lady, having the Christian name of CATALINE, died in Boston, in the summer of 1857. On the other hand, one of our merchants has the apparently female Christian name of CATHOLINA. Parents of a sentimental character often display their taste in the nomenclature of their children. Other names are of a decidedly prosaic and practical nature. One of the streets in Boston is called Shoe-and-Leather Street. An honest carpenter, named Josselyn, was christened MARQUIS FAYETTE, notwithstanding all titles of honor are illegal among us. MARQUIS McDUFF also appears in our Directory.

A late counsellor of this city named two of his sons WILLIAM: they are distinguished from each other by the-middle names of NYE and WATSON. Occasionally the family name is taken as a Christian name; as THOMAS K. THOMAS, OWEN OWENS, &c. HEMAN, a familiar Christian name with us, is signally appropriate to every male-child.

Occasionally a permanent joke is aimed at. Thus it is said that Mr. ROBERT NEW named two of his sons SOMETHING and NOTHING. This story is however, I believe, apocryphal. In our Directory is a Mr. CASTOR BEAN, and also a Mr. IVORY BEAN; both, doubtless, from the same stalk. Quincy is celebrated for its granite; and we have Mr. QUINCY QUARY. We have also Mr. COFFIN PITTS (L. 388, f. 164). KING GEORGE also figures in our records. A former undergraduate of Harvard College, named SPEAR, had the Christian name of WILLIAM SHAKE. Gen. SCOTT, so distinguished for his military achievements, has the Christian name of WINFIELD. KUTUSOFF was a celebrated Russian field-officer. STIRLING PRICE is Governor of Missouri (1856). Mr. LOUIS DORR lives in New York. HURST means "a grove;" and our Mr. GROVE HURST made many conveyances a hundred years ago. Mr. ALWAYS GENTLER is found in the New-York Directory. Messrs. MAJOR DEPTY and BIRD PEAT live in Philadelphia. Mr. FISH, a well-known resident of New York, was christened PRESERVED; and a Mr. CRABTREE, of Connecticut, personally known to a late Professor of Harvard College, was christened A. GREEN. There are enough of that surname in

New England to make quite an orchard. Of the same class is the name of SALEM TOWNE, the senior member of our late State Senate. Though nominally representing the "city of peace," he has the military title of general. MARSHAL NEY was recently indicted in our court. Sometimes a joke is committed unintentionally: thus Mr. MUDD, at the South, named a son, in honor of the great Western statesman, HENRY Clay Mudd. CHRISTMAS CARROL died at Lowell, Nov. 22, 1857, nineteen years old. Dickens's "Christmas Carol" is destined to a much longer life. PLEIADES ORION LUMBKIN was a former student at West Point.

Our Puritan forefathers often used as names long and pious sentences, and such expressions as FREE GRACE, SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, ELECTED, PRAISE GOD, &c. HATE-EVIL NUTTER is noticed in our Colony Records, 1649; and FAINT-NOT WINES became a freeman, 1644. In November, 1857, REST-COME CASE and PARDON W. (PARDON WICKED?) CASE were parties to conveyances, and have a fraternal affinity, at least in name. Hume's amusing list of the names of twelve jurymen in Cromwell's time is familiar to us all. With these Puritanical exceptions, even double Christian names were scarcely known in England till within the last century. Lord Coke, indeed, declares more than one illegal. Milton, Shakspeare, Locke, Cromwell, &c., were satisfied with one. At last came CHARLES JAMES FOX, &c. Now they are extremely common. We have, among statesmen, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS and ROBERT C. WINTHROP; historians, &c., WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT, JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY, and GEORGE S. HILLARD; and our poets, LONGFELLOW, BRYANT, LOWELL, HOLMES, SINGOURNEY, DANA, WHITTIER, FROTHINGHAM, WILLIS, BROOKS, EMERSON, TUCKERMAN, PARSONS, FIELDS, PERCIVAL, POE, KEY, &c., all have middle names. Many, indeed, are not contented with two names. A married relative of my own, — who chooses to retain also her maiden name, — should she spread out her signature to its full proportions, would write five distinct words, amounting in all to forty-one letters.*

We had a Mr. RETURN MUNNINGS; and a former high-government officer, RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS, got his name from the circumstance, that his mother at first declined the addresses of her Jonathan, and then asked him to return. Mr. CUMBACK is a member of Congress. Mr. RETURN is found in the Directory. Mr. USUAL KNAPP, the last of Washington's Life-Guard, died in Newburg, N.Y., in January, 1856. Among the Massachusetts men who took the benefit of the United-States Insolvent Law, I find ORION BROAD, SALMON ENSIGN, and SOCRATES FRISSELL. In Buffalo, N.Y., is a business-sign of ADAM EVA.

Many other odd Christian names may be mentioned as occurring in the records of this county, such as ALOYS, ALMOND, ALMERON, ALPHA, AMITTAI, AMMIAL, AMPHION, AMBROSCENE, ANNAPLE, ARSMUS, ACHSAH,

We have MINDWELL; an excellent name for a wife.

Administration on the estate of AMERICA SPARROW was granted in 1855; and AMERICA C. TABB was sued in 1857. Mr. EMULOUS STACKPOLE was lately sued. Mr. LEMON P. (LEMON PEEL?) HARDING has made many conveyances. Mr. LACK CLANCY, laborer, has not yet become wealthy. Mr. LUMBER ALLEN is a shipwright. Mr. VESPASIAN E. FLYE has an aspiring Christian name, and Mrs. VESUVEA FOSTER a fiery one. Mrs. MINERVA GRAY occupies a humble tenement for a goddess, as does also Mrs. VESTA MORANO. URANIA is the Christian name of a citizen moving in a humble sphere. Mr. CEASER HODDER is a carpenter; Mr. JULIUS KNOTTMAN, a peddler; and Mr. ARTAXERXES C. HOYT, an upholsterer. A clergyman in our vicinity has the Christian name of GRINDALL,* — more appropriate for another profession. Mr. DUFFEY has selected the LAW as a Christian name. JOHN has more namesakes than all the other evangelists together. CRAVEN is found as a Christian name (L. 400, f. 15). Mr. DUNN has even the Christian name of CAIN, — a decidedly exceptional case; as is also that of ANANIAS CONCKLAYNE, or CONKLYN (1645).

The STICKNEY and SHATTUCK families have each had members named ONE, TWO, THREE, &c. I have met with ELDESTA. A father, doubtless intending that his son should have a liberal education, named him DIPLUMA. Another child, probably from being born on a particular kind of bed, was christened MATRASSA. Mr. ARI DAVIS and Mr. PERSON DAVIS, from the oddity of their names, may perhaps be brothers. The romantic department is well represented by GARAFELIA (cara filia, or “dear daughter”), PHILURA, BELINDA, MELINDA, OZIA, DELICIA, HULDA, ROSELLA, LORENDIA, LURIA, ANASTASIA, PAMELA, SOPHRONIA, SERENA, ALVIRA, GALUTIA, AMANDA, FITZJAMES, NELCOUR. We have RODOLPHUS SPALDING. ORLANDO is a common name: thus we have ORLANDO LADD, a carpenter; ORLANDO LIBBY, a cabinet-maker. Contrasted with this dignified name, I find, however, even more numerous specimens of the Christian name of GARRET; doubtless conferred from the circumstance, that the parties were born in an elevated locality.

* England, indeed, has had its Rev. EDMUND GRINDAL, D.D.

Mr. FRIEND CUSHING probably does not belong to the sect of Quakers. I find a widow with the Christian name of TAMER: I know nothing, however, of her married life. Another, with the ominous name of BELLONA, died in 1857. Mr. VALOROUS TAFT is a senator of Massachusetts. The name of OPPORTUNITY HOPPIN is found near Boston. Miss TAMZENE TWING was married in February, 1857. Mr. Ether SHEPLEY of Portland, Me., is not a rival of Dr. Morton in the great discovery of the age. COPLESTONE WAR BAMPFYLDE, Esq., was one of Miss Jones's subscribers. Mr. AVIS MAGNONI died in May, 1857. WONDER WEARS was a pupil at Groton Academy in 1814; as was Miss SUBMIT NUTTING in 1813. Mr. SAXE-GOTHA LAWS was Clerk of the Delaware Senate in 1857. Our Mr. LUCK NASH was unlucky enough to become a bankrupt in 1857. The wife of one of our distinguished merchants has the Christian name of SERAPH. Miss EUPHROSYNE TUBBS, of West Dedham, was among the best contributors at a late Fair. We have RODOLPHUS SPALDING and ARISTIDES TALBOT. Capt. SPARROW HORTON died at Woburn not long since. Agassiz' subscription-list contains several curious Christian names; as WILLIAM NEPHEW KING, of Georgia; FLAMEN BALL, of Cincinnati; TIPTON WALKER, of Galveston, Texas; JANUS (or "double-faced") FRAISER, of Philadelphia, &c. England claims its HARBOTTLE GRIMSTON.

The estate on Cambridge Street, at the east corner of Staniford Street, was derived by MUNGO MACKAY from GILES DULAKE TIDMARSH. JOHN NOLDUS DE VIN PRONK (L. 435, f. 266) has an outlandish sound. Mr. JULY E. WINE lives in New York. A late satire on LOUIS NAPOLEON BONAPARTE, whose name combines the glories of both the French dynasties, belittles him as Mr. L. N. BONAPARTE; and a well-known writer among ourselves, who has the Christian name of LUCIUS MANLIUS, lays aside his Roman dignity under the unpretending initials of L. M. Mr. VICESIMUS KNOX is a well-known author. TERTIUS S. CLARKE was a clergyman of Stockbridge. A near neighbor of my father's had his eighth daughter. Appropriate names were rather scarce. I suggested OCTAVIA: he selected ZEBIAH, or ZIBBY. TWENTYMAN WOOD, of Greenwich, Conn., obtained a patent for making shingles (1858). A Miss ELIOT, one of the owners of a large pasture through which Carver Street was laid out, was christened SILENCE, and grew up deaf and dumb.

The following anecdote was related to me by a friend: At a trial, in which a well-known Liverpool merchant, Ottiwell Wood, was a witness, he was requested by the presiding judge, who was somewhat deaf, to spell his name; which he did as follows: "O double t, i double u, e double l; double u double o, d."

CHAPTER IV.

OPPOSITE SURNAMES CONTRASTED.

MR. BELCH lives in New York. We have had a Gov. BELCHER, (what a corruption of the French Bel-chère!) and a Lieut.-Gov. DUMMER. Gov. GORE married Miss PAYNE. Lieut.-Gov. GILL lived at PARKER's in fine style, and was buried with great pomp, but died deeply insolvent. Mr. DERTH figures in the Directory of 1835; and Mr. DEARTH, of a neighboring county, after enduring his name for many years, was at last induced by his family to change it. A law-student at Harvard is named DEARTH. The English families of HOUSELESS, HUNGER, NEED, and WANT, have no representatives here: on the contrary, our records contain various deeds from persons named PLENTY (L. 394, f. 247, &c.). In New York, however, I find Mr. WANT, Mr. WANTMAN, Mr. WANTS, Mr. NEAD, Mr. LACK, Mr. LACKMAN, Mr. UNGER, and Mr. HUNGERFORD. NEED and NEEDS are both found in Philadelphia.

I have no reason to doubt that Messrs. MELLOW, HAISY (1665), MOONEY, SLEWMAN, DREYER, DRINKER, BIBBER, BRIMMER, SPILLER, MEAD, BEERS, BERE,

ALES (1685), GOODALE, ALESWORTH, WINES, GOODWINE (1658), POTWINE, HOCKEY, NEGUS, GINN, PORTER, POPP, PUNCH, SIDERS, KILCUP, MUGRIDGE, PHILLPOT, FILLMORE, TREAT, TWOHY, REVILL, REVELL, and RUMRILL are as strictly temperate as Mr. DRINKWATER, and as regular in their habits as Mr. CLOCK (L. 384, f. 1); or that MESSRS. CHEW, CRAM, FULLAM, MESS, GOBLE, and GOBBLE are as moderate eaters as Mr. FASTIN. Mr. GREADY was a graduate of Yale in 1842. JAMES T. MORSEL is Associate Judge of the District of Columbia, 1856. GEORGE B. DIETER is Consul for Venezuela at New Orleans. Mr. DIETY and Mr. FAST live in Montreal; Mr. FARE, at Quebec; Mr. FEAST, at Wellington Square, C.W.; Mr. CHEWIT, at Sandwich, C.W. Twenty-four families of CHEW are found in Philadelphia; also Messrs. FILL, FILLINS, FILLMAN, IFILL. LEWIS GORMANDY, of Detroit, appropriated to himself what did not belong to him, August, 1857. J. F. COOLBROTH lives in Portland, Me. MESSRS. COLFISH AND COLFLESH (i. e., Coldfish and Coldflesh), Mr. CHOWDER and Mr. GRAVY, are found in Philadelphia; and both Mr. FASTER and Mr. FEASTER. A Mr. FEASTER also lives at Altona, C.W.; and another was wounded in a late riot at Baltimore. Mr. CHEW VAN BIBBER, of that city, subscribed for Agassiz' work. Mr. GOBELS lives at Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. DAINTY at Pittsfield, and also at Philadelphia. The families of DINING and EATWELL did not emigrate to this country. Mr. WOODFORK, however, is found in our Directory. Messrs. FORKE and FORKER live in New York; and Messrs. FORCUM and FORKER, in Philadelphia. In the New-York Directory are also found Mr. DAINTY, and Messrs. CRUM, CRUMB, AND CRUMMY; MESSRS. GREADY and GREDE; eleven families of MUNCH; Mr. LARDER, Mr. MEATMAN, Mr. MEELS, and Messrs. FILLING and SPILLING. Mr. FASTING, of that city, is a grocer. Our Mr. SPOONER seems to stand by himself between the eaters and drinkers.

Mr. RAP is not a medium, nor is Mr. TIPPIN (L. 365). A Mr. TIPPING appears in our Colony Records, 1676; and THOMAS TIPPING lived in England in 1800. Both Mr. RAPS and Mr. TIPPER live in New York; and Mr. WALLRAPP, in Philadelphia. In the Newhaven Churchyard, England, is a monument to THOMAS TIPPER, who died in 1785. SEARS is supposed to mean "soothsayer," and to be identical with SAYER. Mr. AUGUR has a case now pending, which his opponent doubtless feels to be a bore: he is of an old family. A Mr. AUGUR appears in 1658; and Mr. AUGURS received the notice of our forefathers in 1671. Both SIBEL and SIBELL are found in New York. Mr. SOLDEM has ventured to bring a suit. Our MESSRS. PARSON, PARSONS, SHRIEVER, FRIAR, FRIARY, PRIEST, DIVINE, DEACON, CREED, QUAKER, CHURCH, PRAY, and REVERE are probably not more pious than our Mr. PAGAN or Mr. TURK. Both Mr. CHURCHMAN and Mr. MUSSALMAN live in

New York ; also Messrs. BIGOT, MUNK, and NUNNS. Mr. ROSERY lives at Lockport, C.W. ; Dr. KIRKBRIDE, at Philadelphia ; also Messrs. BIGOT, BAPST, and MUSSELMAN. Mr. LAYMAN lives at Spring's Arbour. Mr. LAYMAN, in 1857, committed a murder at the South, and will doubtless be hung without benefit of clergy. Mr. PRAED, one of England's sweetest poets, has by no means confined his Muse to sacred themes. Dr. VERITY lives at Haysville, C.W. An English clergyman, Rev. ARUNDEL VERITY, falsely and fraudulently converted to his own use funds designed for conversion of the heathen. Mr. NEWGATE (1651) was not an escaped convict ; nor does it appear that Mr. SELMAN (1674) was a slaveholder. Mr. MOTHERSELL lives at Kingston, C.W. No clerical associations surround the name of Rev. WILLIAM YOUNGBLOOD, of New York. A Dr. YOUNGBLOOD lives at Sandwich, C.W. PLEASANT M. MASK, of Holly Springs, Miss., treacherously murdered a young lady in 1857. We have both the BIBLE and the CORAN in our Directory. The BIBLE is nominally met with, both in New York and in Philadelphia. Mr. PASTOR makes casks instead of converts, and can operate better upon hoops than upon heathens ; but, though our PASTOR is a cooper, our COOPER was the best of pastors. WILLIAM PAGAN, Esq., subscribed for Chandos's maps. We have the name of PFAFF. PFAFFE is the German for "priest."

I find a Mr. TENANT ; and we have WIRTH, the German for "landlord." Both TENANT and TENNENT are found in Philadelphia. Mr. CHARTER and Mr. CADE, I hope, alike voted for Fremont. Mr. DERRICK, Mr. DELVIN, and Mr. CARTY, are laborers. Our LIND and MOZART are not musical. Mr. FLUENT and Mr. FLOWRY are not probably greater orators than Mr. STUCK, of St. Louis. Our Mr. BONIFACE is not a landlord. Our MARMION is a stone-cutter. Mr. MACBETH obtained sovereign power as Mayor of Charleston, S.C., in 1857; and BANQUO keeps house in New York. I formerly knew a Mr. DAM, who intercepted other liquids than water. Mr. BENCH, Mr. MODE, and Mr. BODKIN, are tailors. Mr. B. COATES was a tailor in Prince Street. Mr. WAX is not a cobbler, nor is Mr. SOLES; but Mr. CHARLES CARR drives a job-wagon, and Mr. BOSS is a master-workman. Mr. ADORNO is a varnisher in New York. Our Mr. COVERT puts covers on books. Mr. GLASSBROOK has a most mirror-like name, and is a hair-dresser. We have Mr. PENN, Mr. INKER, and Mr. STANDISH; but our BLOTT has been obliterated. Mr. INKPEN, Mr. QUILL, and Mr. SMOUCH, remained in England. Mr. SPOTTS, however, was a passed midshipman in our navy in 1849. The old Romans had the name of MACULA ("a spot"); and both Mr. DABBS and Mr. DAUB are found in the New-York Directory. Mr. STREEK is a depositor in our Suffolk Savings Bank, 1858.

Mr. SOLACE, of Bridport, Vt., is a lawyer. Mr.

GRINDALL lives at Newburyport. Mr. WORK, and Messrs. SWEAT, SWETT, and SWETTING, represent cause and effect. Mr. SWEATING (correctly spelt) lives at Providence. Mrs. QUICK and Mr. DELAY offset each other; as do Mr. LONG and Mr. SHORT, Messrs. TANK and PLUGG, Messrs. VENT and FAWCETT, Mrs. STANDIN and Mr. FALLER, Mr. RICH and Mr. POOR, Messrs. CUMMING, COMER, COMES (1677), CAME, GOETH, and GOING,* and Messrs. BYERS and SELLERS. Messrs. WAKER, WAKEUM, WAKUM (L. 14, f. 383), VIGILANTE, ROUSE, RISING, and RISER have their opposites in Messrs. SLEEPER and NAPPEN,† and in Mr. NAPP of New York. Among English writers, and also among the citizens of New York, there are more than one named WAKE: and in New York I find WAKELY, WAKES, and WAKEMAN; two families of WATCHHORN; also TRAUM, the German for "dream." WAKE'S "Genuine Epistles of the Fathers" appears in the Harvard Catalogue of 1773. A Mr. WAKE lives in Philadelphia; and Mr. WAKEMAN, at Hamilton, C.W. Mr. MORPHY is one of the champion chess-players of the United States. Mr. BIGG and Mr. LARGE, in name at least, outweigh Mr. SMALL and Mr. LITTLE.

England has its WRAGG and RAGG. Mrs. WRAGGE was a subscriber to JONES'S "Miscellanies." We have RAGGENS, RAGON, and PATCH. A Mr. WRAGG was a graduate of Harvard; and a Miss WRAGG, of South

* Mr. GOINGS arrived here in a British steamer, November, 1857.

Carolina, lately married Dr. TOOMER (TUMOR?). England has BAG; and we have BAGG, BAGWORTH, BAGGERLY, and SATCHWELL. One Mr. BAGG lives at Pittsfield, and another is president of a paper company. In Philadelphia are families of BAGG, BAGGE, and BAGGS. Mr. SACKS lives at Bradford, C.W. Both PARCELLS and PARSELLS are found in New York; PEARSELLS, at Philadelphia; and PARSILL, at Belmore, C.W. Seventeen families of PAQUET live in Montreal, and it is a common name in Quebec. Miss HACKER, of Salem, married Mr. SHARPLESS, of Philadelphia, several years ago. Mr. CLIPP and Mr. CROPPER both live in New York. Messrs. WOOD and RAFTERS, housewrights, are partners in business, as are also Messrs. MILLET and BEAN. Messrs. KNOTT, TWIST, TYINGE (1640), TYE, TIGH, TIGHE, Messrs. LEMON and PEELE, Messrs. HAMMER and TONG, Messrs. SOWER* and TILLET, Messrs. BELL and RING, Messrs. FLINT and STEEL, Messrs. RUST, MOULD, and DUST, Messrs. SLATE and CHALK, Messrs. BEETLE and WEDGE (L. 59, f. 239), ought to be so. Mr. OGG lives at Wellington Square, C.W.; Mr. MAGOG, at Montreal. Both Mr. GETTINGS and Mr. GIVINGS live at Kingston, C.W. A Mr. RASER is found in Philadelphia. SARAH S. RAISOR died unmarried (June, 1857). RICHARD LATHERS still survives, and is President of the Great Western Insurance Company, of New York. Mr. LATHERMORE also lives in New York. The firm of SHAVES and CHISELS are tool-manufacturers in Warren, Worcester County. In Portsmouth, N.H., there was for many years a firm of NEAL and PRAY. W. W. MARJORAM made a deed to J. W. PEPPER (L. 675, f. 31). Mr. TIEMANN was elected Mayor of New York, 1857. A Judge of Probate in Alabama is named TYUS, and doubtless often ties the matrimonial knot.

In 1828 there was a Sir CHARLES LEMON in Dublin, and there were English authors named RINGER (1734) and KNELL (1660). KNELL is found both in New York and in Philadelphia. Sir GODFREY KNELLER has a world-wide reputation. Mr. BENDER is a porter. CAVENDISH is one of the great names of English science. Capt. EDWARD CAVENDY, of the U. S. steamship "Washington," invented, in 1857, a tripod for zenith observations. Mr. ARNOLD, and his victim, Mr. ANDRE, are still in close proximity among us. Mr. FERRILL has a good name for a schoolmaster, as have also Mr. RUHLER and Mr. RODMAN. Mr. BIRCH lives at Lachute, C.E.; and both Mr. BREAKWILL and Mr. BREECHER, at Kingston, C.W. The admirable CHRICHTON is a living example to our community. Our GUY and HERRIOTT have founded no hospitals. Neither our BENYON nor our KENYON has the celebrity of Lord KENYON. Our PORTEOUS has never been mobbed (L. 626). Our DEFOE will never write a new "Robinson Crusoe." Our GILPIN has not performed any equestrian feats. Mr. GULLIVER has ceased from his travels, and is at home with us.* Old GRIMES is not dead: he lives in New York. VANWINKLE and VANWINKLER have only removed to Philadelphia. Mr. LAGOE lives in Hamilton, C.W. Mr. SHANDY (not TRISTRAM) lives in Quebec. Mrs. GRUNDY is a housekeeper in Boston, and "Mrs. PARTINGTON" is familiar to us as a nom de plume. Mr. PARTINGTON is a living reality in New York. Our Mr. COTTLE is named JONATHAN (not AMOS). The English astrologer was Mr. LILLY: ours is Mr. LISTER. We had, in old times, a Mr. BISS: we have now Mr. HISS. Both Mr. BIS and Mr. BISS still live in Philadelphia. Mrs. JENNY COZIER lives in a very snug tenement. Mr. WIFFE died in 1638; and yet the practice of smoking was never more prevalent. Mr. PIPE lives at Kingston, C.W.

Mr. LANDSEE, of New York, has compassed sea and land to make one name. In England, there exist single names made up of opposites; as GOCUM, FAIRFOUL, BINDLOOSE, ONSLOW (a family which uses the appropriate Latin motto of Festina lente). Mr. LESSMORE appears in our Directory of 1857. Rev. Mr.

* In 1720 is recorded a deed of Jonathan GULLIVER and wife (L. 34, f. 218). Just after the anonymous publication of "Gulliver's Travels," Pope, who, with one or two other friends, was alone in the secret of the authorship, writes to Swift in Ireland, under date of March 23, 1727-8, "I send you a very odd thing, — a paper printed in Boston, in New England, wherein you will find a real person, a member of their parliament (?), of the name of Jonathan GULLIVER," &c. Swift, under date of May 10, thanks him for this newspaper, and adds, "And I remember Mr. Fortescue sent you an account from the assizes of one Lemuel Gulliver, who had a case there, and lost it on his ill reputation of being a liar," &c. Scott alludes, in a note, to this last as a "coincidence almost incredible."

RANSLOW is a clergyman at Georgia, Vt. Mr. FEATHERSTONE, of Philadelphia, failed in 1857. Mr. LIGHTSTONE lives in New York; also Mr. WATERSTONE. Mrs. WAITSTILL TROTT, buried in our Granary Burying-ground, is an instance of the like discrepancy between Christian and surname; as is also Mr. WATERMAN COLMAN. The familiar name of NOYES is a contradiction in terms. Mr. DUCKLOW, on the contrary, has a name of which the two parts are in the strictest harmony; and Miss ANGUISH CRACKBONE, of Cape Cod, has, in this respect, reason to be entirely satisfied. Mr. WEINBEER, of New York, represents a compound more pleasing to the ear than to the tongue. The name of THALBERG, the distinguished pianist, means, in German, "valley-mountain." Mr. BURGTHAL lives in Philadelphia. FEUERBACH ("fire-river") — i. e., "a stream of fire" — is one of the distinguished names of the century.

PECULIAR SURNAMES GROUPED TOGETHER.

THERE is probably more intimacy in name than in fact between MESSRS. HOOK, STAPLE, and STAPLES, and between MESSRS. LOCKE, KEY, and KEYES. “Jeanne d’Arc” was printed by TRIPHOOK, in London, in 1824; and MR. HOOKS, of Tennessee, subscribed for Agassiz’ work. In thinking of MR. WING and MR. BILL, we are reminded that we have also MESSRS. FINN, FINNEY, PHINNEY, and GILL. Miss PINION, in 1648, as appears by our Colony Records, escaped from the meshes of the law; and Miss WOODFIN, of Marblehead, was married in 1857. MESSRS. DRANE, DRAIN, SUARES, TTRENCH, MLOAT, SSUNKS, FOSS, PPITTS, HHOLE, FFALL, FFALLER, and FFALLS belong to the same family. We have also CHITE, the French for “fall.” In New York are found the names of FFALLER, FFALLMAN, FFALLON, FFALLS, SSINK, and SSINKE. MR. DRAINEY lives at Edwardsburg, C.W.; MR. FFALLMAN, at Hamilton, C.W.; also MR. FFALLBRIGHT and MR. SSINK, at Philadelphia. A MR. HHOLE published a work in London in 1797. HHOLE’s “Liturgy” I have never seen. Both Mr. FELL and Mr. DOWN are in the Directory of 1835. A Mr. RICHARD FELL lived in Bolton, England, in 1821. My washerwoman is Mrs. BOWLINWATER, — perhaps a corruption of BOILINGWATER. Mr. LANDFEAR, a graduate of Yale, is probably not opposed to investments in real estate. Messrs. DULLES and FYLER may both be found in the catalogue of that institution. Messrs. BATT and BALL doubtless played together on the Common. The late able editor of the "Boston Courier" (Mr. KETTELL) had as an associate Mr. FRYE. Mr. KITTLE appears as a grantor in L. 107. Mr. CANER, though his name sounds rather pugilistic, was a clergyman. Mr. CLINCH and Mr. LYNCH were also ministers of the gospel, at South Boston. THOMAS MAULE, of Salem, was a Quaker. The late Mr. CRACKBON was an amiable, quiet citizen. One of the hymns in Greenwood's collection is written by BUTCHER, another by TOPLADY. Rev. Dr. GANNETT, though named for a very stupid bird, has vastly more intellect than his predecessor, Rev. JOHN MOREHEAD. Our BOOTT is not yet worn out.

We have a JOHN QUINCY ADAMS BOLSTER, — a name which happily unites the glorious and the useful. Gen. PILLOW was one of the heroes of the Mexican war. Congress — that place for long yarns — has a Mr. SPINNER for one of its members. Mr. YARNALL himself was in our navy in 1849. Just now, there are probably more BOLTERS in fact than in name. Mr. STOCKS appears in our Directory for 1857. Mr. BRANDER and Mr. CRACKSTONE are probably descended from an officer and a victim of the criminal law. JOSEPH PICKSTONE, Esq., subscribed for Chaudard's maps. In New York are found families of HANG, HANGLAND, and HANGS. STEINSCHNEIDER'S (or "stonecutter's") "Jewish Literature" was published in London in 1857. Among the business-signs in Boston are those of "HENRY HYDE — Boots and Shoes;" "EBEN E. FOWLER — Bird and Cage Depot;" and J. P. DRAPER advertises superior shirts, collars, &c.

Among Miss Jones's subscribers, I find Mr. BOWDRY, Mr. DRAX, Mr. DADDO, Rev. Mr. DIPPLE, Rev. Mr. DEGG, Rev. Mr. DARCH, Rev. Mr. FOWEL, Mrs. GODSCHALL, Mr. GASHRY, Miss GYDE, Mr. JUBB, Mr. JOHN GLUBB, Mrs. NAB. GUBBINS, Mrs. GATAKER, Mrs. HOLBROW, Miss HINDMARSH, Mr. HEWGOE, Mr. HIBBS, Mrs. JAGGER, Mr. LOVIBOND, Rev. Mr. MENCE, Mrs. NARES, Mrs. NIBLETT, Dr. PARDO (Principal of Jesus College), Mrs. PRALL, Mr. PYPON, Miss PRATVEIL, Mr. PEAD, Miss PYSING, Rev. Mr. PYLE, Mr. PERING, Mr. PARGITER, Mrs. QUESTEAD, Miss RAINSTORP, Mr. SPILTIMBER, Mrs. SPINCKES, Miss STURT, Rev. Mr. TWYNIHOE, Mr. TWINER, Mrs. TREACHER, four named VANHATTEM, Rev. Mr. VATAS, Mr. WIGHTWICK, four named WORGAN, Mr. WATTERS, Mr. WITTON, Mrs. WITTEWRONG, &c.

There is a Miss SILVERHEELS in Boston: she signed as witness to a deed recorded in 1857. Mr. SILVERTOOTH lives in Philadelphia. Mr. A. S. SCRUGGS is a subscriber to a Boston journal. Among the Harvard graduates are the names of GUSHEE, QUASH, SLUMAN, SHISSLER, FRICK, AND BLIGHT; and Yale matches these by her names of BRODNAX, CHALKER, DARKEN, CRAW, DIGGINS, SPROAT, SPROWL, SWOPE, PUMPELLY, MUNGER, and URICOECHEA. A Mr. SHOUSE, at the South, choused his creditors by forgeries, in July, 1857. Both BLIGHT and BLEIGHT are found in Philadelphia. Rev. Mr. SPROLE once officiated at West Point. Mr. SWITCHELL lives in Weybridge, Vt. Dr. TWITCHELL was an eminent surgeon in New Hampshire. Salem has residents named SMOTHERS and SCRIGGINS. YOUNG QUATTLEBAUM was a graduate of West Point in 1857; and Mr. SWISHER became A.M. at Brown University in the same year. The State Auditor of Texas is named SWISHER. Messrs. QUAKENBUSH and QUAKENBOSH, as also Messrs. BRASH, BROACH, and BUBB, live in New York. Mr. HUCKABY is one of the prosecuting attorneys of Indiana. Mr. GRUSH lives in Brookline, Mass.; and Mr. SHUNK was a midshipman in our navy in 1849. Mr. QUACKENBUSH, of Albany; Mr. SMULL, of Baltimore; Mr. CRUDUP, of North Carolina; Mr. CRACKETT, of Nashville, Tenn.; and Mr. SLOAT, of San Francisco, — all subscribed for Agassiz' work. Mr. MISHLER is a West-Point cadet (1857).

Some names are immortalized by a distich ; thus : —

“ There was longitude missed on
By good Mr. WHISTON,
And not better hit on
By HUMPHREY DITTON,” &c.

We have WHISTON, DITSON, DUTTON, &c. HUMPHREY DITTON's work on the resurrection is recommended to the Harvard students in the catalogue of 1773, where also HASSELQUIST's "Travels" are (doubtless with equal reason) commended to the like favor. Mr. TRIPLET is probably descended from an ancestor who was one of three at a birth. Mr. WHITEHEAD is, perhaps, a young man : his namesake, the late Mr. HOAR, was venerable alike for age and character. Mr. HORE, in the Directory of 1841, adopts a new spelling. We have CAIN, CANE (L. 96, f. 175), and KANE. The latter name belongs to the nation. A Mr. CANE lives at Hardwick, Mass. Pontius Pilate has a representative in Mr. PILATTE ; and even NERO has a namesake among us. HERRODE is found in Philadelphia. One Mr. HAYMAN died in 1806, and others still live among us. The letter "Y," though it does not vary the pronunciation, is yet decidedly an advantageous addition to this name. It appears, however, in the unmitigated form of HAMAN, in the Colony Records of 1660. In 1781, there was an English writer named RACK ; and, in 1761, another named TOLL. Capt. TOLL and Miss TOLL subscribed for Jones's "Miscellanies." Mr. TOLEFREE was graduated at Yale in 1828. Mr.

TOLE was a colonist in 1640; and Mr. TOLL appears in our Directory of 1857. In the New-York Directory, I find Mr. TOAL; also Mr. ZOLL (the German for "toll") and Mr. RACK. Mr. TOLLS lives at Newburg, C.W.

Mr. HALPINE probably came from Switzerland via London. The ancient family of CLAMPIT is, after two centuries, still extant among us in the wife of a well-known artist. Five families of CLAMPITT live in Philadelphia; and Mr. CLAMPETT lives in London, C.W. JOHN EARTHY settled among us in 1674. In 1790, there was an English author named SMELLIE. Our ESSENCE is a black man: Mr. SAVORY and Mr. OTTO, however, are white. Among our recent marriages are those of Mr. LAVENDER and Miss GARLICK. Mr. GARLIC lives at Toronto, C.W. One of England's belles in the last century was "the beautiful MOLLY LEPÉL."* Miss LEBEL lives at St. Thomas, C.E. Mrs. PLATO is a black woman. The noble house of NASSAU has its representative in a hairdresser. Mr. BRUNSWICK dealt in furniture. Mr. HANOVER is a clerk; and Mr. LORRAIN, a housewright. TUDOR holds its own. TITUS has namesakes among us. Mr. PRIAM, of New York, is a waiter. Among the Messrs. ASAY, of Philadelphia, not one is connected with the mint. JULIUS CÆSAR was knighted, and became Master of the Rolls, in England, a hundred and twenty-five years ago; but our CÆSAR is only a hairdresser.

* MARY LEPÉL, who married Lord HERVEY.

COLUMBUS himself is a shoemaker in New York, as is also our own MENZIKOFF. Our BRUCE* and WALLACE are not heroes. BRAMAH is a citizen of Kingston, C.W. WILLIAM PITT once lived in North Square. Our HOMER, PINDAR, TASSO, MILTON, DRYDEN, and BYRON, and our TATE and BRADY, have no poetic aspirations. Mr. DANTE is a laborer at London, C.W. MESSRS. JUVENAL, BOILEAU, VOLTAIRE, and THACKARA, of Philadelphia, are not known in the literary world. Our TULLY and CURRAN are not orators, nor is our CADMUS a literary man. Mr. VIRGIL, of New York, is an expressman. Mr. SOPHOCLES, however, is an instructor in our university; and there was lately a Professor TULLY at Yale College. Our BEEDE will not probably be known to posterity as "the venerable." Our DAVIE, though not a philosopher, was a baronet. We have a Mr. PLATO* (1857). Judge CATO, of Kansas, hardly rivals his ancient namesake, or justifies his own Christian name of STERLING G. ("sterling gold"?).

Mr. BOGY, the banker, of St. Louis, found himself in an insecure position in September, 1857; and even Mr. ROCKHILL, of Philadelphia, yielded to the pressure of the times. The two firms of BOTTOM and Co., of New Jersey, also got to the bottom of their resources at the same period. Mr. GOTHAM probably never saw New York. MESSRS. GOLDSTONE, of Cobourg and of Toronto, C.W., and Mr. NOGGET (1684), did not come from California. Mr. HARLEM is out of his latitude. GEORGE LOYALL, of Norfolk, being a navy agent, is doubtless a good patriot. Mr. KINGSLAND, of New York, did not become a refugee at the Revolution. Mr. CARLAND's estate is not well situated for a railroad depot. Mr. CHATEL, of Ottawa, C.W., is not a slave; nor was Mr. KILMASTER, of Port Rowen, C.W. Mr. SCHROUDER, of Portsmouth, C.W., is not an undertaker. Mr. HOPKIRK, of Kingston, C.W., is not a Shaker; nor are the HARAM families, of Quebec, Mormons.

Rev. Mr. FACER, of St. Thomas, C.W.; Rev. Mr. FEAR, of Vroomantown, C.W.; Rev. Mr. FEATHERSTONE OSTLER, of Ancaster, C.W.; Rev. Mr. PLOWMAN, of Ayr, C.W.; Rev. Mr. OATS, of Thamesford, C.W.; Rev. Mr. TAPP, of Cobourg, C.W.; Rev. Mr. FAWCET, of Consecon, C.W.; Rev. Mr. LEES, of Ancaster, C.W.; Rev. Mr. GRAVEL, of La Prairie, C.E.; Rev. Mr. STALKER, of Inverness, C.W.; Rev. Mr. OLSCAMPS, of St. Stanislas de Batiscan, C.E., — form a group of clergymen of rather anomalous names. On the other hand, Rev. Mr. SERVICE reads the Methodist-Episcopal service at Lynden, C.W.; and Rev. Mr. RALLY, of Haysville, C.W., manifestly belongs to the church militant. Mr. LAPPE, of New Hamburg, C.W., is a shoemaker; Miss VEST, of Toronto, C.W., a dressmaker; Mr. VIZARD, of Peterborough, C.W., an attorney; and Mr. SUPPLE, of Pembroke, C.W., a member of the Provincial Parliament (1857). MESSRS. CARVETH, of Port Hope, C.W., and Mr. GASH, of Dunville, C.E., are butchers. Mrs. LONE is a widow, at Oriquois, C.E. Mrs. CINNAMON, of Kingston, C.W., keeps a grocery. The MESSRS. BROADWATER, of Philadelphia, are fishermen. Mr. BRICK, of that city, is a mason; and Mr. CARTMAN, a laborer. Mr. BRICK-LAYER, of Montreal, is a laborer; Mr. RUMBLE, of Clinton, C.W., a wagon-maker; and Mr. SADDLER, of Adelaide, C.W., a harness-maker. Mr. BUILDER, of Caledonia, C.W., is merely a cabinet-maker. Mr. SPURGEON, of Toronto, C.W., takes care of soles, not of souls; and Mr. HATTER, of Ottawa, C.W., is a shoemaker. Mrs. BLOOMY is a schoolmistress at St. Zepherine, C.E., — an employment decidedly unfavorable to the complexion.

The PADDY family, though specifically extinct, is still the largest in Boston. We have the names of FRAIL and PARRAMORE. Mr. RAKE arrived here in a Cunard steamer, November, 1857. Many a HUSSEY may be met with. LEMANs, HARRIDANs, and TRULLs* abound; and WANTONs have disappeared from among us only in name. HARLOTs, however, are not found here, though they are in London. Among the unfortunate passengers of the "Central America" (1857) was one named FALLEN; and Mr. FRAILEY was a lieutenant

* A wealthy citizen of this name, in 1857, offered a donation to the city for the purpose of devoting a piece of land to public uses, under the name of "Trull Square."

in our navy in 1849. Both FRAILEY and FRAILY are found in New York; and, in Philadelphia, I find FALLEN, PARAMORE, PARREMORE, with no less than eight families of FRAILEY, and sixteen families of FRALEY. Mr. LETCHER, of Virginia, is a member of Congress. RUTTER is a common name with us; and there are twenty-one families of that name in Philadelphia. Rev. SAMUEL RUTTER, D.D., was a former Bishop of Sodor and Man. A libel is pending in our United-States District Court against Mr. RAPES. Mr. RAPE is a subscriber to one of our religious journals. Among German naturalists is found Mr. PANDER (1818). Well, indeed, may the poet exclaim, —

“Not to mention many a vulgar name,
That would make a doorplate blush for shame,
If doorplates were not so brazen!”

Some foreign names, if domesticated among us, would be deemed absolutely inadmissible in good society. Thus: “Col. MAGNUS PUKE, Chief of the Navy Office, and the last representative of one of the oldest families in Sweden,” died at Stockholm, of cholera, in September, 1857. We have Mr. DEVINE and Mr. WONDER. Mr. WUNDERS lives in Hartford, Conn.; Mr. MARVEL, at Rehoboth. The English MARVELL was the wittiest man of his day. It is needless to add, that we have families of GUESS. Mr. GESS lives in Philadelphia. We have also WHYTALL, WHITTLEY, CUTTING, and WHITTLE. Both WHITTLE and WITTLE are found in New York. I do not find the name of SWAP; but Rev. C. E. SWOPE (a name before alluded to, p. 34) was Rector of Grace Church, Chicago, in 1850; and twenty-two families of the name live in Philadelphia.

CHAPTER VI.

PECULIAR SURNAMES, CONTINUED.—GOOSE, &c.

THE late European belligerents ought to have employed as umpire our fellow-citizen, Mr. ROYAL MAKEPEACE. Mr. JOBS lived in New York, — a name, in the plural, rather suggestive of city contracts. Our Mr. JOB is a family man, and probably owns railroad stock. Messrs. TITTLE, BLANK, and CYFER have insignificant names. Mr. BLANKMAN and Mr. AUGHT, and Messrs. CYPHER, and CYPHERS, live in New York. At Philadelphia I find families of BLANCK, BLANK, and BLANKMAN, two families of DITO, and six families of NULL. Mr. TITTELL lives at Preston, C.W.; Mr. OUGHT, at Toronto, C.W.; Mr. TWEEDLE, at Glen William, C.W. Mr. FARLESS was sued in 1857. Mr. MEAR made a deed in December, 1856. MORE is very common. Mr. MOST appears in the Directory of 1857; and another Mr. Most lives at Hartford, Conn. Mr. OVERMORE was admitted a free-man in 1671; and Mr. CLIMAX himself lives in New York. Mr. VERY and Mr. WELCOMBE (L. 17, f. 10) appear extremely cordial; while, on the other hand, Messrs. NAY, NOTT, NEVERS, NEREY, NAROMORE, DENIO, and Miss REPELL, seem quite the reverse. Mr. DENYER lives at Toronto, C.W. Mr. WOODNOT was present during the last days of the English poet Herbert. WILLING is found here; and it is one of the first families in Philadelphia. In New York are found the names of DOOLADY, DUDUIT, and DUCOM, — all implying a pressing request. Mr. WINDER, a passed midshipman; and Mr. TOLER, a midshipman in our navy in 1849, — have each an insinuating name. Mr. JOINS was a sailmaker in the navy; and Mr. SHOCK was in the engineer corps at the same time. That important little word “no” is represented in the New-York Directory by eight families of NOE. CHILLINGWORTH was an eminent English divine of the seventeenth century. Mr. O. VERY lives at Chesterfield, N.H.; and Mr. LOTH, at Bridgeport, Conn. Mr. PASSAVOW is probably a decided character, as is also Mr. EID (German for “oath”). Dr. PHYSIC was one of the most eminent physicians of Philadelphia. In the list of subscribers to Pope’s Homer, I find the name of Dr. PELLET; a name which also occurs among the graduates of Yale. Rev. Dr. KIRK is one of the most distinguished clergymen of Boston, as was the late Dr. KIRKLAND. Our SHADRACH is a blacksmith. ALEXANDER GARDEN was a distinguished Scotch botanist of the last century. THOMAS P. BROKER, of New York, is a member of that virtuous fraternity. Mr. CARS, of that city, is a carman; and Mr. CARTY, a driver. Among the late failures in the Manchester trade is announced the name of JAMES CHEETHAM. One of the greatest judges of England was named LAW; and Mr. DUNNING has been seldom surpassed at the bar. Mr. DELIGHT, of Lawrence, cures baldness; and his name suits his trade to a hair. Mr. NEWBERTH, of New Britain, Conn.; Mr. NEWBEGIN, of Ellsworth, Me.; and our Mr. NEWMAN, — have probably names of a Puritanic origin. Mr. AMEND, of New York, has a more modest name of the same class.

Many of our names have an undue share of consonants, as BERSTCK, BERTSCH, &c. NITZSCH was a German naturalist. In others the vowels predominate, as in KEYOU. We have one name without any vowel (Mr. VGHL); and I find, in Philadelphia, the name of SHNPF, — each as embarrassing to the vocal organs as some which occur in a late poem. In New York I find SMINCK. Of a very mean and contemptible person, we say that he is a perfect PETER SMINK. About the year 1800, there was a veritable personage of this name; of whose character, however, I know nothing. He was, by occupation, a bottle-washer. PETER SMINK is one of the characters in a play of John Howard Payne.

There are many fools still to be found, and sometimes even in the first society; but the wealthy family of GOOSE has become extinct. It seems to have been always rather a distasteful name: hence their conveyances were sometimes made with an alias, — “GOOSE, alias VERGOOSE ;” and generally they sank the GOOSE altogether. Some of the most valuable estates in Boston were held by this family for several generations. ISAAC VERGOOSE, in 1768, conveyed to Jonathan Amory a tract of land on Washington Street, at the entrance of Temple Place. The deed was recorded in one of the two missing volumes (L. 114, f. 26), and I got it recorded again in 1832 (L. 360, f. 199). PETER VERGOOSE, the ancestor, owned as early as 1662, and died in 1667. His son ISAAC died in 1711 ; and, in 1734, a division was made of his numerous estates (L. 50, f. 220). One of his daughters was Elizabeth, wife of THOMAS FLEET, the printer, and mother of THOMAS and JOHN FLEET, also printers of note. Rowe’s Pasture, on Bedford Street, through which Rowe Street was laid out, and which measured three hundred and one feet on Essex Street, is derived from the devisees of ISAAC VERGOOSE. The Essex-street Church and the Rowe-street Church are thus traced back to a humble origin. A Mr. Goos still lives at New London, Conn.

The analogous English names of GANDER, GOAT, BLUNDER, FOLLY, TRASH, MOTE, CHAFF, and NILL are not found with us. The firm of G. W. FOLLEY and Co., of Rochester, N.Y., as might have been anticipated, failed in 1857. FLATMAN’S poems were published in 1686. NIHELL’S “Treatise on the Pulse” appeared in 1744. Dr. NIHELL subscribed for Chauchard’s maps. We also have, in our Directory, Dr. NIHILL. A Mr. NILL lives in New York, and another in Philadelphia. NODDELL on "Christ's Crucifixion" was published in 1715. East Boston was, for a century and a half, known as Noddle's Island. ODY wrote in 1817. In England we find GOOSE, GREENGOOSE, and GOSLING. Among the subscribers to Thomson's "Seasons" are Mrs. GOSTLING, also Mr. ENSER (perhaps derived from anser, the Latin for "goose"); and on the subscription list of the "Macklin Bible" is GEOURGE GOSTLING, Esq. Mr. ANSER appears in our Directory for 1857. Mr. GREENGOOSE took the oath of fidelity to our government in 1674. Hon. David Sears informs me that a Mr. WILDGOOSE was largely concerned in navigation at New Providence about twenty-five years ago. In New York I find GANDAR and GANDER; also GANS, the German for "goose;" and one solitary GOOSE, with several GOSLINGS. One GOSLING appears in our Directory for 1857.

CHAPTER VII.

NAMES FROM HEATHEN DEITIES, &c.; HEAVEN AND HELL, &c.; MAN, AND PARTS OF A MAN.

THE heathen deities, ODIN, BACKUS (said to be "bake-house"), and MARS, dwell with us. Rev. Mr. MARS is a clergyman in Worcester. The goddess FLORA keeps house in Boston. An edition of PALLAS'S "Travels" appeared in 1812. We have also the name of GOTT (the German for "God"); and the diminutive, GODDY. In New-York there are no less than thirteen families of CHRIST, including a firm of Spies, CHRIST,* and Company. A Dr. CHRIST lives in London, C.W. Mr. CHRISTMAN was lost in the "Central America" (1857). We have with us CHRISTE (Probate Records, 1731), CHRISTIAN, CHRISTY, CHRISTEN, CHRAISTER, GILCHRIST, GODDARD ("Godward"), GODBOLD, &c.; also the angel GABRIEL. WILLIAM GODWIN was a well-known essayist; and JOHN D.

* L. M. SARGENT, Esq., writes to me, Feb. 13, 1857: "When I was in Vera Cruz, some years ago, I boarded in a family in which some Spaniards, male and female, also boarded; and I met them first at dinner. I was quite amazed by the words, 'JESUS, shall I help you to more soup?' addressed by one of these gentlemen to his friend opposite. Presently, 'Miss JESUS, a little of the,' &c."

GODMAN, an American author, died in 1830. In Philadelphia are six families of GODSHALL; also a Mr. CHRISTIAN GODT. A tutor at Harvard has a Christian name compounded both of the evangelists and the apostles, — EVANGELINUS APOSTOLIDES SOPHOCLES.

In England there are families of SAINT, APOSTLES, CHRISTMAS, MARTYR, &c. A short time since, a man fell in with three young girls in Boston, who robbed him: he gave his name as THOMAS SAINT. I have doubts, however, as to this saint among sinners; since, not long ago, some rowdies gave to the court, as their own, the names of our most distinguished Unitarian clergymen, and were fined accordingly. Mr. SELIG (i. e., German for “blessed”) deals in caps. Mr. HEVENDEER lives at Woodstock, Vt. We have ANGEL (what a misnomer for a lawyer! unless derived from the coin, when it becomes appropriate), BOGLE (a spectre), GEIST (the German for “spirit”), SOULE, FAY, and MABB; also WARLOCH. We have also ENGAL and ENGELS, from the German for “angel.” Mr. ENGELMAN, of St. Louis, subscribed for Agassiz’ work. Mr. PUCK lives in New York. Mr. WAND, of that city, deals in spirits. Our Mr. PARADISE did not venture on the Eden of matrimony without making a marriage settlement, duly recorded (L. 653, f. 284). We have also SOLL (the Latin for “sun”), MOND (the German for “moon”), MOON, MOONE, STARR, STARRS, and STAR. Mr. SOLIS prefers the genitive case. Another Mr. MOON lives at Coventry, R.I. We have also CLOUD. The Attorney-General of Iowa is named CLOUD; and six CLOUDS live in Philadelphia. Mr. CLOUDMAN lives at Levant, Me. I find but one SKY. SKY, indeed, has been extensively used up in ending off names in Poland. SKEY lives in Philadelphia. Elsewhere there are families of HEAVEN, DEVIL, and HELL. MAXIMILIAN HELL appears in the biographical dictionaries as a distinguished astronomer of Hungary, born in 1720. In the New-York Directory are ten families of HELLMAN. Mr. HELHOUSE was an English author in 1819. Mr. MYHELL lives at Beauville, C.W. Among the graduates of Yale are three named DIBBLE. Mr. DIBBLE lives at Brookfield, Conn., and also in Philadelphia; Mr. TEUFEL (German for "devil"), at Bridgeport; and this last is common in New York. Indeed, our name of HOLL is, I believe, pronounced as if spelt with an e. And we have DEUELL, DIEHL, DEVLIN, and DEBELL. HIMMEL (German for "heaven") was a well-known German composer. EDEN is the name of a distinguished English family. Both EDEN and EDENBORN are found in Philadelphia. Mr. JUPITER lives at Waterbury, Conn.; Mr. JOVE, in New York; Mr. SOUL, at Lagrange, Me. Mr. PLANETT is found in our Directory, and sells beer. Mr. PLANERT lives in New York; Mr. COMET, in Montreal.

Columbus discovered a world; and so have I. Mr. WORLD lives at Orillia, C.W.

Man is represented by families of MAN, MANN, FREEMAN, FREEBORN, TASKER, FREEDMAN, VASSALL, PRENTICE, PRENTISS, BOND, LADD, CHILD, PAGE, &c. BOIES is probably a "wood." Mrs. BOYCOT subscribed for Miss Jones's book, as did also, Mr. LADS. The "Lives of the Scottish Poets" was printed by BOYS, London, 1821. Mr. JIPP ("a small boy") lives in New York; also Mr. LADDY and Mr. LADLY. MESSRS. BOY, BOYE, and BOYS, and Mr. MASTER, are found in Philadelphia. FREE'S Poems were published in 1757. A Mr. FREE lives at SACO, Me.; Mr. FREER, at New York; Mr. THRALL, at Rutfield, Vt.; Mr. FREED, at Deerfield, N.H.; and Mr. MASTERMAN, at Weld, Me. Mr. CERF lives in New York. On the other hand, Mr. LIBERTY has a home in London, C.W.; and Mr. BINDLESS, at Hamilton, C.W.

The parts of a man may be seen in families of HEAD, KNODLE, MUNNS, CHEEKLY (1659), EAYRES, HAIR, BEARD, BEARDMORE, DENT ("a tooth"), GUM, BOSSOM or BOSOM, CHESTLY (1655), SIDES (L. 674), WHITESIDES, HANDYSIDE, KIDNEY, LIVERMORE, ARMS, ARMSTRONG, HAND, DEXTER (i. e., "right hand"), TUFFNAYLE (1629), NAGEL, NAGLE (German for "nail"), SILVERNAIL, KNIES, KNEELAND, WEISSBEIN (German for "white leg"), LEGG, FOOT, FOOTE, SCHANK, HEELY, and the name, before alluded to, of SILVERHEELS. Several families of FINGER appear in the Directory of 1857. Administration on the estate of one WILLIAM FINGER was granted in 1854. Mr.

SHANK was, in 1857, Secretary in the Attorney-General's office at Washington. Mr. ALFOOT was disarmed by a Colony order of 1637. Mr. LEG made his appearance in 1638. Miss NECK is first assistant in a private school in Brookline (1857); thus occupying her appropriate position immediately under the head of the establishment. Mr. SKULL was defaulted in our Municipal Court, October, 1857. The ankle, that most interesting part of the female figure, has, I believe, no representative here or elsewhere. Mr. HAUPT (the German for "head"), of Philadelphia, subscribed for Agassiz' work. In New York are found families of PATE, BRAIN, BRAINE, EYE, CHEEKS, LIPPS, CHIN, CHINN, GUMB, GUMBS, MAW, MUN, MUNN, NOSE, HAIR, HAIRE, and WISKER; also SHOULDER, SHOULDERS, BACK, SIDE, WAIST, LAPP, LUNG, PAPPS, TETTE, TETTEY, TEATS, THUM, THUMM, KNEE, SHANK, SHANKS, SHIN, &c.

The very peculiar name of WATERHAIR is found in L. 98, f. 180. TOZER is probably not derived from TOE. Mr. TOEWATER is Dutch consul at St. Louis. There is, elsewhere, a family of BELLY; and we have VENTER (the Latin for "belly"). Mr. FELIX BELLY was sent to this country as special French minister to settle the South-American question, November, 1857. Mr. MAGNUS VENTRESS formerly lived at South Boston. Mr. GAULTRAPP, in September, 1857, found one willing to become Mrs. GAULTRAPP. Mr. TUNG lives at Naugatuck, Conn.; and Mr. TONGUE, at

East Cambridge; Mr. BACK, at Granville, Vt.; Mr. SHANKS, at Orono, Me. B. R. CHINN was wounded at W. Baton Rouge, June, 1857. There are, in England, families of SKULL, BRAINS, PATE, FACE, EYE, CHEEKE, LIPP, TOOTH, TEETH, CHIN, ALLCHIN, NECK, SHOULDER, BACK, BODY, BOWELS, PAUNCH, INWARDS, SKIN, BONE, KNEEBONE, SIDE, HIP, HEELE, SHIN, and TOE. Mrs. BRAIN recovered a thousand pounds, in England, for a husband killed on a railroad in 1857. Engravings have been published from pictures in the possession of G. T. BRAINE, Esq., 1853. DANIEL L. BRAINE was a midshipman in our navy in 1849. Mrs. CHEEKE, of Lincoln-Inn Fields, was one of Miss Jones's subscribers; as was also WILLIAM PATE, Esq. A Mr. DENT was graduated at Yale. The Catalogue of DENT's Library was published in 1827. Mr. FOOT-HEAD was an instructor of youth, highly esteemed by Burke. CHARLES EYES, Esq., lived at Liverpool; Miss BONE, at Hackney; and GEORGE BEARDSWORTH, at Manchester, in 1821. Sir JOHN CHEKE was an author in 1641; and Mr. MAWE, in 1797. I find, in 1800, the name of CHINNERY. Among the graduates of Harvard is Mr. LEIB (the German for "body"). In the "Progresses of Queen Elizabeth," I meet the name of BODDYE; and BODDY is a common name in New York. Among the subscribers to the "Odyssey" are both Mr. LIPPE and Mr. GUMLEY. There are eighteen families of SCULL in Philadelphia. Mr. HEART is one of the editors of the "Charleston Mercury." Sir Thomas F. Buxton relates, that in Italy he had as fellow-travellers Capt. BACK and Mr. SILVERTOP.

A Mr. BODDY lives at Toronto, and also at Bondhead, C.W.; Mr. LAPP, at Cedar Grove, C.W. Mr. BOWELL is a man of note at Belleville, C.W. Mr. BACK lives at Toronto, C.W.; Mr. HIPSON, at Kingston, C.W.; Mr. BONES, at Milton, C.W.; Mr. HANDS, at Gode-rich, C.W.; Mr. HANDRIGHT, at Gould, C.E. Two specimens of the unique name of NUCKLE are found at Isle Bizard, C.E. Mr. NAIL lives at Centreville, C.W. SHANKS is very common at Belleville, C.W. Mr. MAW is domiciled both at Beauharnois and at Georgetown, C.W.; Mr. MUNNS, at Kingston, C.W.; Mr. LIPP, at Preston, C.W.; Mr. GUMMA, at Ayr, C.W. Mr. PAPPS lives at Hamilton, C.W.

In Philadelphia there are seven families of WOLFINGER, Mr. VINGER (i. e., "finger"); Messrs. THUM, THUMM; Mr. FOREHAND, and eleven families of FOREPAUGH; Mr. ELBOW, Mr. NEES, and nineteen families of SHINN; seven families of BUMM; Messrs. SIDE and SIDES; Mr. BROW, Mr. EARGOOD, Mr. EAYRE, Mr. EY, Mr. GODLIP, Messrs. LIPP, LIPPE, LIPPS, and LIPS; Mr. PATE; Mr. PALLAT and Mr. PALLET; also the very peculiar names of RINGLET and TRESS.

CHAPTER VIII.

MALE FEMALE NAMES. — NAMES FROM MENTAL QUALITIES.

THE sexes are confused in the names of Mr. MADDAM, Mr. BLOOMER, Mr. PHILLIS, Mr. CORNELIA, Mr. ALLICE and Mr. ALLIS (1679), Mr. ANNIS, Mr. CATE, Mr. HAGAR, Mr. ISBELL, Mr. PATTEE, Mr. PEGGE, Mr. HANNAH, Mr. HANNAHS, Mr. ELLEN (1664), Mr. ELLENS (1665), Mr. LIBBY, Mr. BECKEY, Mr. LUCY, Mr. LUCEY, Mr. MAGGI, Mr. ELSIE (1672), Mr. MARIAN (1654), Mr. MAUD, Mr. MERCY (L. 40, f. 263), Mr. NELL, Mr. NANCE, Mr. RACHEL, Mr. RUTH,* Mr. Rooth, Mr. JENNEY, Mr. BESSIE, Mr. SHEA, Mr. LEDDY, Mr. LIDDY, Mr. LISET, Mr. LEUISE (1684), Mr. NUNN, Mr. DAME, Mr. VIRGIN, Mr. BRIDE (L. 507, f. 144), Mr. WIDDOWS, Mr. MARESS (mayoress), and Miss MONKS. Mr. VIRGO (Latin for "virgin") appears in our Directory for 1857. Mr. EVE is mentioned in the Boston newspapers, September, 1857; but is not a dealer in fruit. Mr. HESTER was a midshipman in 1849. Mr. JOHN AUGUSTA lives in New York, where are also found Mr. DOLLY, Mr. CARA, Mr. JANE, Mr. HONNORA, Mr. FRANCES, Mr. LEAH, Mr. SUES, Mr.

* We have also Mrs. BOAZE.

LADY, Mr. LISSA, Mr. LIVEY, Mr. MALL, Mr. MOLL, Mr. MOLLISON, Mr. MOLLMAN, Mr. MEGSON, Mrs. MALE, Mrs. MALES, Mr. SHEE, Mr. SALLY, and Mrs. BILLY. Mr. HATTIE is a medical student at Harvard. I find in our Directory JOHN MOLLY. Mr. MANUS SALLY was admitted a freeman, 1647. Mr. LYDEA is in the Directory of 1835. Mr. MAGGY is buried in the Granary Burying-ground. Rev. Mr. JANE subscribed for Mrs. Jones's book. Both Mr. JAYNE and Mr. HARRIOTT are graduates of Yale. MASTER BETTY is a well-known theatrical personage. This name seems rather to belong to those derived from mental qualities. Mr. DEBBY died in 1801. Mr. WEIBRECHT (or "woman's rights") made a deed (L. 710, f. 254). Mr. SHEWILL was a colonist in 1653. At Canterbury Cathedral, England, is a monument to Lieut.-Col. WILLIAM PRUDE, killed July 12, 1632. MARIANA ranks high among Spanish historians. Hon. Justice HELLEN, of Dublin, was a subscriber to the Macklin Bible. There was, in 1676, an English writer named SALL. PEGGE'S "Anonymiana" appeared in 1809.

There have also been publications by Mr. SHEE and by Mr. SHEBBEARE. Mrs. HEMANS is an English classic. HEMAN is found in New York. We have a Mrs. HEAMAN. Mr. CRONE, of Aurora, Ill., failed in 1857. Mr. QUEEN, of the marine corps in 1849, was doubtless a good republican. This name is also found in New York. "The lovely THAIS" is also represented there. Mr. WIMEN, of that city, seems to embody the whole sex. On the other hand, the distinguished English astronomer, Dr. MASKYLINE, seems to abjure them altogether.

In that city I also find Mr. ADA, Mr. ALICE, Mr. AMAZELLA, Mr. ANNE, Mr. AUSTIS, Mr. ELLA, Mr. EVA; two families of DOROTHY; also Mr. COUNTISS, Mr. VIRGO, and Mr. MISS.

One name unites the masculine and the neuter, — Mr. HICKOCK (hic-hoc). Mr. MANLOVER, lost in the "Central America" (1857), had a name especially appropriate to the female sex. A name applicable to the whole human race is borne by Mr. Z. R. PANGBORN, a delegate from Massachusetts to the late Philadelphia Convention. This name is that of a place on the river Thames, of which an engraved view is given by Boydell. Mr. SOMEBORN, of Philadelphia, may feel assured that somebody was his father. In 1698, there was a London publisher named MANSHIP. One name among us seems to imply a doubt of its own identity: in L. 182, f. 173, is a deed to a Mr. OTHERMAN; probably, however, a mistake for OTHERMAN. Mr. ALTER (the Latin for "other") was graduated at Yale; and this is a common name in Philadelphia. Mr. KNOTMY (not me) appears in the Directory for 1857. A Mr. NOTMAN lives at Dundas, C.W.; and another, at Montreal.

Mental qualities or states have given us many names. MESSRS. PRIME, GOOD,* GOODE, BETTER, BEST, LONGWORTH, LANGWORTHY, GOODMAN, GOODFELLOW, GOODENOUGH OR GOODNOW, TWOGOOD (1640), BUONCORE (i. e., "good heart"), MERRITT, DUTY, VIRTUE, CANDOR, RIGHT (1642), WORTHMAN (1680), and WORTH probably all had their failings. WORTH was buried in New York, November, 1857. Mr. SCATTERGOOD lives at TROLLOPE subscribed for Jones's "Miscellanies." Our Mr. GOODRICH has a name most happily compounded; and AYLWIN means "beloved of all." The treatise on German names by Wiarda gives to ALWIN the meaning of "victorious." Mr. WELLBELOVED was an English writer in 1809. Thirteen popes have taken the name of Innocent.

It would almost seem, so intimate is the connection between crime and intemperance, that GINGRASS (a very common name in Canada) must be an offshoot from this last family.

In Philadelphia I find the classic name of CANDIDUS; also PERFECT, RIGHTLY, and SHAMELY; and twenty-one families of SCATTERGOOD.

Incredible as it seems, there exist in England the names of CUCKOLD, PYMPE, BAIRNSFATHER, BASTARD, and BRATT. Families of GOODHUSBAND, YOUNGHUSBAND, WEDLOCK, AFFECTION, KISS, STRANGER, and QUAINANCE are also found there. The names of BARNFATHER and BASTARD are indeed both found at London, C.W. Mr. CARLOS BRATT was a midshipman in our navy in 1849; and the name is in the New-York Directory. Mr. CRONEY also lives in New-York. Rev. J. G. BIAS is a clergyman at Philadelphia. Mr. HUSBAND was an author in 1711; and a Mr. HUSBAND recently lost a limb by an accident in Boston, and subsequently died at the Hospital. Both HUSBAND and HUSBANDS are common names in Philadelphia. On the other hand, Mr. NICHOLAS WIFE was admitted a freeman in 1645. A marriage contract is recorded in Lib. 677, f. 261, one of the parties to which has the appropriate name of STANDRING. Our Mr. FREELove (L. 121, f. 105), in name at least, scorned all such ties. Mr. SPENDLOVE, of New York, has also a promiscuous name.

There is a work on "English Rhymes" by GUEST. A Mr. GUEST was a passed midshipman in our navy in 1849; and the name is found in New York, and in Canada, at Toronto, &c. Mrs. TRYST was a subscriber to Jones's "Miscellanies;" and P. BASTARD subscribed for Ackerman's "History of Oxford." Higgeson's "New-England Plantation" was printed for MICHAEL SPARKE in 1630.

Ages are represented by Messrs. YOUNG, YOUNGMAN, YOUNGER, YOUNKER, JUNIOR, MINOR, SENIOR, OLDS, WHITEHEAD, ELDER, and ELDERS. Mr. AGES lives in Philadelphia; and Mr. BIBBY is a depositor in one of our savings banks, being a decidedly juvenile name. We have Miss EUNICE V. SENEX (i.e., "old man"). *Mr. OLD lives in Franklin, Vt., and also in New York. Mr. MINOR is Governor of Connecticut (1856). Sir JOHN SUCKLING was an English author of note in 1648; and SWADLIN wrote in 1653. WHITELOCKE'S Swedish embassy took place in 1653-4. Lieut.-Col. WHITELOCKE subscribed for Chauchard's maps. There is a resemblance in sound, if not in fact, between WHITEHEAD and WISEHEAD. Mr. GRAYHEAD lives in New York. The name of BLACKLOCK is found in Virginia. Mr. BIBB was the first Governor of Alabama. Who can better play "Old Folks at Home" than the distinguished violinist, Mr. VIEUXTEMPS (i. e., "old times")? Both JUNG and JUNGER* are German authors. There was a Roman family of SENICIO ("an old man"). Mr. OLDMAN lived at Buffalo, N.Y., in 1855. In the New-York Directory are the names of BABE and BABEY. The family of BABY (correctly spelt) is still found in the mother country. A Mr. BABY was also a Canadian resident near Detroit in 1763; and the name is very common now throughout Canada. No less than five families are found at Moore, C.W. I also find, in Philadelphia, six families of BABE, and one BABEY; where are also seven families of BORN, and three families of WEAND. Mr. CADET lives at Kingston, C.W. Mr. LADSON is consul for Denmark at Charleston, S.C. In Salem there is a family of OLDSON. Mr. ALTFATER (German for "old father") lives in New York. Mr. OLDFATHER was landlord in a real-estate suit reported in 27 Penn. State Rep. 285.

* Being the German for "young" and "younger."

Mr. ILLIUS, of that city, is perhaps of Trojan descent. Mr. CLIME and Mr. COUNTRAMAN, of New York, seem to have no fixed residence. Our Mr. FREELAND's name is but an alias for America. Mr. ACIE, who appears in our Colony Records, 1677, may perhaps claim his name from another continent.

Seas, bays, harbors, and rivers give us BALTIC, CASCO, SACKET, JORDAN, TWEED, CAM, HUMBER (1663), NILE (1680), MERSEY, SHANNON, WYE, HUDSON, CHARLES, RHONER, &c. Mr. TWEEDY was graduated at Yale. We have among us representatives of the ancient battle-fields of FLODEN, BOSWORTH, CRESSY, &c. ; and, in the New-York Directory, I find families of LUNDONER, RHINELANDER, WARSAWER, SARASIN, TUNIS, RIO, WHEELING, &c. In Philadelphia are families of BERLIN, CORINTH, HAGUE, POTSDAMER, TARTAR, TARTER, and TARTOR.

All these classes of names doubtless originated in ancestors who came from the countries or places thus indicated. On the other hand, several towns among us, as is well known, have received their names from distinguished citizens ; as LOWELL, LAWRENCE, &c.

Some have promiscuous names ; as CANALE, PEOPLES, CLASS, FELLOWS, FOLK, ELDERS, CROWD, GARRISON, TROOP, TROUP, MANY (1665), CHAPP, PERSON, PERSONS, PROVINCE, THING, JURY. lived in Buffalo in 1855, as did Mr. PAIR. One of the hymns in our church psalmody was written by "MEDLEY." In St. Paul's Cathedral is a monument to Sir WILLIAM HOSTE; and there was an eminent Danish scholar named HOST. Mr. BATCH, of Bridgewater, obtained an agricultural premium in September, 1857. THOMAS COW became a freeman of Ipswich, 1681. Mr. KOON lives at North Adams; Mr. MOLE, at the same place, and also at Williamstown; Mr. COULT, at Manchester, N.H. Our Mr. BOREMAN, perhaps, derived his name from his colloquial powers.

One PATRICK RABBIT was party to a deed in Essex County; and a lad of that name was killed in Augusta, Me., April, 1857. Two families of the same name live in New York. Mr. EARRATT, in the London Directory of 1858, has a name suggestive of a snug residence; and Mr. LAMBSHEAD, of that city, has a decidedly sheepish name. Of their townsmen, Mr. DE PORQUET would seem to be an aristocratic derivative from hog; while Mr. CUDD represents the ruminating animals.

WOLFE, the hero of Quebec, was by no means of a savage temper. The monument erected jointly to him, and his rival Montcalm, has an inscription worthy of Tacitus: "Mortem communem virtus, famam historia, monumentum posteritas dedit."* Mr. ROEBUCK

CHAPTER XIV.

NAMES FROM BIRDS.

BIRDS and fowls are well represented, in the aggregate, by BIRD, BIRDSALL, AVIS (Latin for "bird"), VOGEL (German for "bird"), also FOGEL and FOGELL, FOWLE, and in the different branches of ROBIN, ROBINS, ROBBINS, LINNETT, GANNETT, QUAIL, QUAYL, FINCH, BULFINCH, CANARY, DAWES, CRAINE, CRANE, GREW ("a crane"), GROUSE, CHICKEN, CHICKEY, CHICK, SCHWAB, GIESE, GOOSE and GOSLING (before alluded to), BLACKBIRD, BROWNBILL, PARTRIDGE, PARROTT, PARROTTS, DUCK, DRAKE, CORLEW, CURLEW, BUNTING, COOTE, COOTS, PIDGEON, PIGEON, PIDGIN, DOVE, WREN, and TITT; also PEEP, TEAL, TEEL, TEELE, GEYER (the German for "vulture"), HAWK, HAWKS,* SPARHAWK, SPARROW, HOWLETT, BUZZARD, PECKER, MARTIN, SWALLOW, CROWE, CROW, KROES, ROOK, CORBETT (i. e., "raven"), STORKE (L. 41, f. 291), STARLINGS (1681), STARLING; likewise HERN (L. 694, f. 261), HERRON, HENSHAW (i. e., a "young heron"), NIGHTINGALE, SWAN, CAPRON. EDWARD DAW revolted on board a Boston ship, in April, 1857; and Mr. DAWSON was a gunner in our navy in 1849. JOHN CROE signed his name so in 1655.

We have HAHN (the German for "cock"), COCKREL (L. 36, f. 247), COCKS, COX, COCK, PEACOCK, TANCOCK (died 1855), MOORCOCK, WOODCOCK, and all the various compounds of COCK ; as ALL, BAB, BAD, HAN, HAND, HIS, HITCH, MORE (L. 40, f. 97), SHILL, PO, &c., — which compounds, however, are not supposed to be really derived from that bird, but, in some cases, from COQUE ("a cook"); while, in others, it is used as an affectionate diminutive. HEDGECOCK'S quadrant has made a stir in the world of science, second only to that of the discovery of the quadrature of the circle some years since.* Dr. LOCOCK is physician to Queen Victoria. Mr. HECOCK (the "he" seems to be superfluous) was graduated at Yale in 1802. Mr. GLASSCOCK, of Missouri, manumitted his slaves by will in 1857. Sir ISAAC POCOCKE subscribed for Chauchard's maps; and our Mr. POCOCKE was sent to England in 1648. Rev. Mr. LEACOCK died a missionary in Africa. In the New-York Directory I find ADCOCK, DAYCOCK, and HEACOCK. Mr. LAYCOCK lives at Embro, C.W.; Mr. LA'COCK, at Richmond, C.W.; Mr. MAYCOCK, at Sandwich, C.W.; Mr. WILLCOCK, at Toronto, C.W.; Mr. WILCOCK, at Philadelphia, where I also find Messrs. ALCOCK, LERCOCK, and VEACOCK. Mr. COLCOCK was a West-Point graduate. TREBLECOCK is a very common name in

* A petition for a reward for this discovery was repeatedly presented to the Massachusetts Legislature; and was once even referred to a committee, who gravely consulted my late father, Dr. BOWDITCH.

Canada, as at London and Norway, C.W. It is spelt TRIBLECOCK at New Ireland, C.E., and TREBILCOCK at Toronto. Mr. LUCKCOCK had the bad luck to be an officer of that mismanaged institution, the Birmingham Jail, the groundwork of Reade's "Never Too Late to Mend." Mr. SAMUEL SLOCOCK was a subscriber to Jones's "Miscellanies." Mr. BOCOCK is a member of Congress from Virginia, as is also Mr. COCKERILL from Ohio. A graduate of Harvard is named HENRY CLAY COCKERELL. The most distinguished Protestant preacher of France is M. COQUEREL. Rev. Dr. COXED ("cock's head"), warden of Winchester College, subscribed for ten copies of Jones's "Miscellanies." There was a Roman family of GALLUS ("a cock"). Our Mr. CROWIN, as if assured of victory, brought a suit in August, 1857. We have also CALLOW, HENVILLE, HENFIELD, HENNY, HENNS (L. 407, f. 6), HATCHMAN, HATCH, COVEY, BRUDE, COOP, COOPS, PIPPY, and PIPPEY. Mr. HENN lives in New Britain, Conn. (1858).

We have GLADWING (1629). Mr. GULL was admitted a freeman (1673). The BATT family owned very valuable real estates in Boston. This name is also found in Port Stanley, C.W., and at Toronto. Mr. BATMAN lives at London, C.W.; and that name is found among the West-Point graduates. Mr. CRUMPECKER is a stable-keeper at Lynchburg, Va. JOHN QUAILS was a pupil at Groton Academy. Among the distinguished persons who attended the funeral of Douglas Jerrold was Mr. AUGUSTUS EGG. There are two families of EGG in Philadelphia; and Mr. EGGS lives in New York. Sir CHRISTOPHER WREN has left behind him the noblest monument in London. In the churchyard of the parish of St. Peter the Apostle, Canterbury, is a monument to JOHN CUCKOW, who died 1760. Among the admirals of England are DRAKE and HAWKE, and Sir GEORGE ROOKE. With the first of these Queen Elizabeth is playfully associated, in the lines, —

“ Oh, give us, for our kings, such queens,
And, for our dux, such drakes ! ”

Mr. GROSEBECK is a member of Congress from Ohio; and Mr. WATTLES is a graduate of Yale, as is also Mr. HERON. Miss MATILDA HERON is a popular actress among us. HAHNEMANN was the father of Homœopathy. EULENSPIEGEL (German for “owl’s looking-glass”), born 1350, is as popular in the traditions of Germany as Robin Hood is in England. The great Roman name of GRACCHUS means merely a “jackdaw.” Among Miss Jones’s subscribers are Mrs. CAGE, Miss DOVE, Mr. FINCH, Miss PARROT, Mr. SPARROW, Rev. Mr. CORBETT, CHRISTOPHER CROWE, Esq., Mrs. GOSLING, Mr. MARTYN, Miss MARTIN, &c. Mr. FEATHERHOFF, of Pennsylvania, failed in September, 1857. Mr. HATCHER was in the engineer-corps of the U. S. navy in 1849. In the New-York Directory I find BROOD, BEAK, BEAKMAN, BRANT, BUSTARD, DUCKMAN, DRAKEMAN, DAW, DAWSON, JAYCOCK, JAYCOX, LARK, RAVEN, RAVENHILL, three families of STARLING, STORCK, STORK, THRUSH, TITT, TITTMAN, WALDUCK and WALDVOGEL (or "bird of the woods"), COVEY, GULLMAN, HEN, HENN, GROUSE, &c. MANDRAKE perhaps belongs here rather than among the vegetables. Strange to say, I do not find in Boston a single specimen of the most glorious bird of all, — our own national emblem, — the Eagle. Mrs. MARY EAGLES, however, died at Roxbury, March 31, 1857; and we have EAGLESON. There are seven families of EAGLE in the New-York Directory: it is also found at Ottawa, C.W., Yorkville, C.W., and Philadelphia. Mr. EGLE, of Harrisburg, Pa., is one of Agassiz' subscribers. Mr. HEAGLE lives at Stirling, C.W. Of the hymns used in our churches, one is written by JOSIAH CONDER. The JAYS prefer New York; though one has got to Montreal. The PHENIX has arisen from its ashes, and moves about among us: it is, indeed, a graduate of Harvard. England has its families of DEARBIRD, FOWLS, LINNET, CUCKOO, COOTE, GULL, ROOK, STORK, THRUSH, &c.; and among the subscribers to the Macklin Bible are Col. COCKERELL, and JOHN CREWE, Esq. DUCK's Poems were published in 1764. France has its Mdle. FALCON. Mr. FALCON lives at St. Jaques Le Mineur, C.W. Mr. PIPPY is an editor at Woburn. Mr. PIPPE lives at Matane, C.E. Mr. OUELLETT lives at Madawaska, Me. Gen. STORKS was an English officer in the late Russian war. At St.

Edmund's, Salisbury, is a monument to RICHARD ROOK (died 1779). The note of the NIGHTINGALE charms the ear of the Englishman; and that name is dear to his heart.

DUCK is a very common name at Chatham, C.W. The collector at Morpeth has that name. LARK is found at Coatacook, C.E., and at Kingston, C.W.; LARKE, at Chatham, C.W.; and LARKWORTHY, at Kastner, C.W. Mr. RAINBIRD lives at Coldwater, C.W.; Mr. CAPON, at Cookstown, C.W.; Mr. STORK, at Brampton, C.W.; Mr. STORKS, at St. Catherine's, C.W.; Mr. THRUSH, at Toronto; Mr. COOT, at London, C.W.; Mr. GRAYBILL, at New Dundee, C.W.; Mr. BLACKBIRD, at Toronto; Mr. BIRDSELL, at Farmersville, C.W. CHAPTER XV.

NAMES FROM FISHES, INSECTS, REPTILES, &c.; AND OTHER DISAGREEABLE NAMES.

TURNING to the department of fishes, we find the names of FISH, FISHER, FISHERS, FISHLEY, BODFISH ("bad fish?"), WEIR, WIER, HOOK, BATE, BATEMAN, and BATES; SHOLES, DOLFIN, THRASHER, SHARKLY, SHARKEY, SKATES, SCATES, EELS, EELES, EELLES, CONGER, SALMON, SKIMMER, SCHAD, HAKE, BASS, CODY, CODLEY, CODWISE, CODDING, and CODMAN; also PIKE, ROACH, ROTCH, BREAMS (L. 94, f. 272), PLACE, PLAICE, WHITING, HERRING, TURBAT (1653), MULLETT, MULLET, RAY, SMELT (L. 91, f. 177), LAMPREY, POLLOCK, HADDOCK, TROUT, TROUTBECK, and ROE; also TURTELL. MR. WHALE lives in Toronto, C.W.; and a PHILEMON WHALE appears in our Colonial Records in 1656, with a signature as large as life. On July 22, 1857, THOMAS SCULPIN was fined five dollars for a criminal appropriation of another's chattels. A sculpin is a worthless and greedy fish, with a huge mouth. In this case, the man is named for the fish: on the other hand, the fish known as John Dory is said to have been so called from its supposed resemblance to a person of that name. England has its LAMPREY and SPRAT; also TURBET, CHUB, CHUBB, CHUBBE, PAR, PARR, GILLY, GILLIES, TURTLE, &c. Mr. STURGEON received a degree at Yale in 1745; and Mr. STURGEON, of St. Louis, subscribed for Agassiz' works. THOMAS W. STURGEON, Esq., subscribed for Chauchard's maps. Dr. EAYLES, of England, has lately died. Dr. SPRAT was formerly Bishop of Rochester. SPRAT'S "History of the Royal Society" is on the Harvard Catalogue of 1773. A Mr. SPRATT lives at Toronto, C.W. SHADWELL was an English dramatist. Miss SHAD was the deserving stewardess of the ill-fated "Empire State;" and six families of SHADD live in Philadelphia. Mr. CHATFISH ("cat-fish?") made a deed (L. 702, f. 211). Mr. POLLOCK is Governor of Pennsylvania. Sir FREDERICK T. POLLOCK is Chief Baron of the English Court of Exchequer. Miss PYKE subscribed for Miss Jones's work; as did also Mr. SHARD, Rev. Mr. TENCH, and Miss SHELLEY. CARP itself I do not find; but POLYCARP was one of the ancient Christian martyrs. In the Harvard Catalogue of 1773 is "RAY (JOHN), all his works." One of the most distinguished French mathematicians is M. POISSON (French for "fish"). EDWARD CODD subscribed for Ackerman's "History of Oxford, &c." In New York are found families of CRABS, CRAW, CUSKLY, HAIK, LAMPRY, STURGEON, TROUT, TROUTT, SMELT, WHALE, WHALES, WHALEY, and WALE. In Philadelphia I find three families of DOLPHIN, nine of FLOUNDERS, four of STURGEON, and a Mr. DACE; also Mr. OYSTER and Mr. SHELLEM. A Mr. CODD lives at Addison, C.W.; also at Kingston, C.W., &c.; Mr. SHADD, at Chatham, C.W.; Mr. STURGEON, at Hamilton, C.W.; Mr. SHARKY, at Kingston, C.W.; Mr. HAYCK, at Spencer's Mills, C.W.; and Mr. FYSH, at London, C.W. CONCHA, the name of the Governor-General of Cuba, is the Latin for "shell." There was a Roman family of LAMIA (a kind of flat-fish).

Mr. FINNY lives at Monkton, Vt. Our Mr. GILFEATHER partakes equally of the fish and bird. Mr. BORROWSALE is satisfied with the permanent loan of part of a fish. We have GILMAN. Mr. COWGILL, a judge in Indiana, prefers a union of fish and animal. Mr. SHELDRAKE, of Bolton, C.W., unites fish and bird. Our Mr. CHUBBUCK (married January, 1858) unites fish and flesh. Mr. SCALES was killed July 4, 1857. Mr. BIRDSEYE, of Derby, Conn., perhaps belongs to the department of woods. Mr. SHELMIRE, of Philadelphia, failed in October, 1857. Mr. SHELLEY, the well-known writer, seems to embody the genus Crustacea. What lawyer has not heard of the rule in SHELLEY'S case? Mr. SHELHAMMER is party to a deed in L. 689. JOHN MUSSEL was whipped (1641). We have SHRIMPTON, COCKLE, SHELL, SCHELL, KREBS (i. e., "a crab"). CRABBE, the poet, has a namesake, — the author of the standard work on English Synonymes. One of the United-States master commandants in 1839 was Mr. CRABB. Perhaps CRABB should have been inserted among names derived from mental qualities. There has been more than one English writer named ROE; and SALMON'S works were published in 1748. Mr. GEORGE SEAL made a deed (L. 125, f. 234). The CODMAN family must regard it as a gratifying coincidence, that the great Persian monarch Darius is known in history as DARIUS CODOMANUS.

Some of our fellow-citizens are even contented to bear the names of CHEYNE, CHYNE, KOHR, MARROW (L. 86), SPLEEN, KIDNEY, HORN, LANGHORNE, WHITEHORN (L. 38, f. 21), SIDES, JOINT, HIDE, HIDES (1649); also TALON, HASLETT, HAZLETT, WITHERS, VANDERHOOF, HOOFFMAN, GUTTING, and GUTMAN. Mr. GILLS lives at Rockport, Me. Who does not involuntarily pity MESSRS. SPITTLE, TAINTER, and PEST? We have CREASE, CREASY, LEES, and SKIMMINGS. Mr. FOGO arrived here in a

Cunard steamer, November, 1857. Rev. Mr. SMELLIA lives at Fergus, C.W.; Mr. STINCHMAN and Miss STANK, at Philadelphia. There are English families of TRIPE and ROTTEN. Thus a writer, giving an account of the massacre at Delhi (1857), says, "Mr. ROTTON and I buried thirty-one bodies." Here the name is appropriate to the act performed. Our Mr. ROTTE died in 1839. In New York I find ROTT, ROTTY, ROTTMAN, SPITTEL, and SPITTLE. Mr. CAUL lives at Kingston, C.W.; Mr. BRAWN, at London, C.W.; also Mr. CROCK; Mr. CHINE, at Toronto, C.W. KIDNEY is a common name in that city, and is found elsewhere in Canada. In Philadelphia are families of JOYNT, RUMP, RUMPP, ARTERY, and URIN. In our Directory of 1841 are the names of TRIPE and STENCHFIELD. Mr. STINCHFIELD is a very common name in New England: it is borne by three clergymen. Mr. FAULWASSER (German for "dish-water," or "foul water") was married in Boston in June, 1857. One of the defendants in a suit now pending is Mr. FOREPAUGH, and another is Mr. WART. Insects are represented by MESSRS. BEASE, BEEMAN, BEBEE, BEEBE, WEATHERBEE, WITHERBEE, APPLEBEE, LEATHERBEE, HORNETT, HORNET, BEETLE, FLY, FLYE, CRICKET, EMMET (L. 182), BUGGEY, BUGDEN (L. 537), WORMLEY, and GRUBB. This last name appears in a softened form, as GRUBE, among the graduates of Yale; and Mr. GRUB lives in New York. Mr. ANTCLIFF appears in our Directory of 1857. We find Mr. BEEBEE in Paulet, Vt. Mr. SOMERBEE gathers his honey from the law. Mr. BEE dwells in Stowe, Vt. Another BEE was surgeon in our navy in 1849; and that name is found in New York. Mr. BUGBEE goes strongly into this line. Miss MABEE died in Roxbury, April, 1857; and a Mr. MAYBEE lives in Codrington, C.W. Among the graduates of West Point are WHEDBEE and Mr. B. E. BEE. Mr. FLEEMAN lives at East Wilton, N.H. A London edition of the "Vicar of Wakefield " was printed in 1843 by FLEY. The newspapers of May, 1857, mention that AARON BEDBUG, of Montgomery County, Ky., proposes to change his name. Mr. WIRM is found in Middleton, Vt.; Mr. WURM, at Trumbull, Conn., and also in New York. Mr. WORMSTALL was a colonist in 1653. Sir RICHARD WORME lies buried in Peterborough Cathedral. We have WORMS. New York gave a home to the noble Irish exile, — EMMETT.

Reptiles have never been favorites, from the serpent of old to "the ugly and venomous toad;" and few of our names are derived from this source. We have, however, LEECH, BLACKLEACH, and ADDERLY; and Mr. ADINO PADDOCK will be remembered among us as long as the trees shall flourish which he planted by the Granary Burying-Ground. We have NUTE and NEWTS; and in England is found a family of BLACKADDER. We have BOTT; and the Hon. J. M. BOTTS is one of the most distinguished statesmen of Virginia.

Two families of BLACKADDER live in Montreal; Mr. SNAKE, at Toronto, C.W.; Mr. DRAGON, at Freilighsburg, C.E.; and Mr. TOAD, at Philadelphia.

Dane's "Abridgment" cites law-cases of MESSRS. MUTTON, STEED, TABB, MOUSE, CUD, STORKE, CROP, FEATHERS, and MUSSEL, and a suit of ADDERLY versus SPARROW.

The Bible informs us that man originally gave to the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air their names.* The debt has certainly been repaid in these later times: they have given to man all their names back again.

* Gen. ii. 20: "And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field."

CHAPTER XVI.

named PEASE. Mr. PEASE, of New York, is celebrated in connection with the Five-Points Mission. One of our first families is PEABODY. The munificence of the London banker of that name is well known. The pilgrim who lightened his penance by boiling his pease before he put them in his shoes, and who, while saving his soul, thus also saved his body, may perhaps have been the progenitor of this family. JOSEPH PEAS was a subscriber to Thomson's "Seasons." PEA itself is found at Salem, Conn. Cicer, cicera, means, in Latin, "chickpea;" and the great orator of antiquity, CICERO, was, to his contemporaries, only the eloquent Mr. PEA.

Mr. SEAWOOD, of New York, has not a very combustible sound. MESSRS. CHIP, CHIPPEY, and COAL live in Philadelphia. Mrs. SEACOLE was popular among the soldiers at the siege of Sebastopol: and among the London bankrupts of 1857 appears the same name; it is to be hoped, not of the same person. COKE is one of England's greatest names in the law.

Mr. SOUTHMAYD lives at Hartford, Conn. Mrs. EASTERLY's child fell out of a window in Boston in June, 1857. Sailors, in boxing the compass, use abbreviations, as "nor," "nor-east;" and thus our name of NORCROSS may be "north cross." WESLEY is "west lea," or "west meadow." Sir HENRY VANE was as well known in the Old World as the New. England has had its Lord NORTH, its Dr. SOUTH, its poets SOUTHEY and SOUTHERN, its painter WEST, its designer and draughtsman WESTALL, and its preacher WESLEY. Rev. an architectural origin. Among the subscribers to the Macklin Bible I find the names of GARRETT, GLASSE, WALL, &c. The Messrs. ARCH flourished in 1828. Mr. ARCH appears in our Directory of 1856. Mr. CREAK was an author in 1754; and Mr. DORE, in 1786. Mr. OVERLOCKE lives at Thomaston, Me. Our Mr. CUTLOCK has a most burglarious name. Mr. TRULOCK is one of the prosecuting attorneys of Indiana. NOBBS, CREAK, and SHUTTER live in London (1858). CAROLINE POST is postmistress at Gilead, Conn.; and CHARLES POST is postmaster at Hebron, Conn. Mr. STAIRBIRD, of Carrol, Me., has rather a nautical than an architectural sound. Dane's "Abridgment" cites the cases of EAVES and POSTERN.

Many of our most absurd and strange names, particularly those of animals, are doubtless derived from signs of inns and other like objects. Thus Mr. TURK may have come from Turkey, or he may have been employed at the Turk's Head Inn. Summer Street bore successively the names of Mylne Street and Seven-Star Lane, from its leading to a windmill, and from its tavern standing on the site of Trinity Church. So Prince Street was Black-Horse Lane, from the tavern in it; and Salutation Alley or Street was so named from the inn at its entrance on Ann Street, known by the sign of "The Salutation, or the Two Palaverers." If we suppose a tavern to have existed with the sign of a litter of pigs luxuriating at their mother's breast, — which would certainly be a most suggestive emblem of the parental reception which awaited its guests, their satisfactory fare, and entire contentment, — what is more natural than that a person identified with this locality, as landlord or otherwise, should acquire the name of PIGHOG ?

As to the materials of our houses, we have BRICK, STONE, FREESTONE, IRON or JYONS, MARBLE, PEWTER, TINNEY (1658), BRASS, &c. T. K. BRICK and Co.'s "Fire-brick Works" are in South Brooklyn, N.Y. Inside of our houses may be found many a living HAMOCK, COUCH, CUSHING, MATTRASS, CRIBBS, RUGG, DIVAN (1656), CURTAIN, CURTIN, BOLSTER, BUREAU, STOVE, SPITZ, HOLDER, LAMPE, LAMPÉE, MATT, TRAY, &c. Mr. MATTE lives in Cap Santé, C.E.; and no less than seventeen families of BUREAU are found in Quebec. In Philadelphia I find BRUSH, BRUSHER, and eleven families of BROOM. Mr. THICKBROOM, of New York, would make an efficient mayor of that city. MARGERY RUGS was whipped (1640). Mr. BOCKING lives in London (1858). In New York are found families of TABELLE, BENCH, and DAIS. Mr. WEDGEWOOD appears in our Directory for 1857. Mr. TREVETT (an old word for a "three-legged stool") died in 1822. Among the public men of Indiana, and also among the graduates of Harvard, is a Mr. SHEETS; and SHEETS is a common name in Philadelphia. Mr. SHEATIN lives at Hamilton, C.W. Mr. QUILTER was a colonist in 1679. Mr. CRIBB was whipped in 1630. Both QUILT and SWING are found in the Directory of Buffalo, N.Y., for 1855; and we have Mr. TUCK and Mr. TUCKWELL. Mr. SOFFEE died in 1794. Mr. SOPHER lives at Bristol, Vt. The name of SACKENBOTAM is found in Massachusetts. Mr. BEDGOOD made a deed (L. 54, f. 140). Both BEDDOME and BEDLOE are names known in English literature. Mr. QUILTY lives in New York. Rear-

Admiral BLANKETT was a British officer in the wars against Napoleon. Mr. CADDY lives at Plainfield, Vt. Mr. LAMP lives at Norwich, Conn.; and Mr. WICK, at Guilford, Conn., and in Philadelphia. WIGHTWICK wrote "Hints to Young Architects." I own BEWICK'S "Fables." Mr. OYLES was a subscriber to the "Odyssey." Mr. OILL lives at St. Catherine's, C.W. If we wish to see the candle swale, we can do so in Miss Jones's subscription-list. Both SWAIL and SWALE live in Montreal. H. SOCKETT, Esq., subscribed for Chauchard's maps. RUSHWORTH'S "Historical Collections" is not a light work. Mr. SHINE appears in our Directory; and Mr. SHONER lets his deeds be seen in our Registry..

CHAPTER XXII.

NAMES FROM STREETS, UTENSILS, &c.

ON leaving our houses, we meet and converse with MESSRS. STREET, RHOADES, ROHDE, LANE, ALLEY, RIDGWAY, WAY, BRIDGE, LOWBRIDGE, and DRAWBRIDGE (L. 636). Our SHIMMIN is probably a corruption of chemin ("a way"). MR. CHEMIN made a deed in 1857. MESSRS. CAUSEY, WALBRIDGE, LILLIBRIDGE, and LONGSTREET are all graduates of Yale. We have had a Gov. BRADSTREET (i. e., "broad street"). Lieut. J. LONGSTREET served in the Mexican war. BERRYSTREET'S "Sermons" appears in the Harvard Catalogue of 1773. STRADA ("street") is an eminent Italian historian. MR. CAUSEY is Governor of Delaware (1856). In New York I find MR. PATHE. BROADWAY and Co. failed in London in 1857. Burton's "Diary" was edited in London (1828) by RUTT. We have also families of RUTTY, RUTZ, and HUBBELL. MR. RUTTY was an English writer in 1772. In Salem is a family of LONGEWAY. Elgin, C.W. ; Mr. BASIN, at Ottawa, C.W. ; Mr. JUGGS, at Toronto, C.W. ; Mr. JARMAN, at London, C.W. Mr. BOWDISH also lives in that city. This is a corruption of BOWDITCH ; which name was spelt in the like erroneous manner in the early records of Salem, Mass.

In Philadelphia I find eight families of AXE, one AWL, and one AULL ; Mr. CAULTER, Mr. CHIZEL, and Mr. CLEAVER. HAMMER is common there. I also find, in that city, Mr. INKHAMMER and Mr. LONGHAMMER, Mr. CHURN, six families of CASKEY, six of CASTOR ; MESSRS. BOAL, BOTTEL, BOTTLES, BIGGIN ; MESSRS. Among Miss Jones's subscribers I find Mr. CANN, Mrs. EWER, and Mr. EWERS: There were Roman families of PISO ("a mortar"), PATINA ("a stew-pan"), &c.

CHAPTER XXIII.

NAMES FROM MATHEMATICS, LOGIC, LITERATURE, LAW.

MATHEMATICS has its living COAN, CONE, FORCE (L. 91, f. 156), GIVEN, &c. ; and very abstract ideas are represented by men and women. THOMAS LINE was a colonist in 1637. Mr. DEGREE lives at Hinesboro', Vt. ; Mr. RATIO, at Bromfield, Me. ; Mr. FORCE, at Charlemont ; Mr. VARY, at South Berwick, Me. ; another Mr. GIVEN, at Brunswick, Me. Mr. POWER holds an official station among us. Mr. MASSE published a work on Commercial Law, in 1846, in Paris ; and Mr. MATTER also published a work there in 1841. LA PLACE was the greatest of French mathematicians. Mr. De L'ANGLE subscribed for Jones's "Miscellanies." Mr. ANGLES and Mr. BEVIL live in New York ; as does also Mr. BASE, — whom in charity I ought, perhaps, to place here rather than among names from moral traits. There are no less than five families named COZINE and COSINE in the New-York Directory ; where I also find LINE, LINES, PLANES, LEVER, LENS, PLACE, and SYPHER, &c. Mr. ANGLIN lives at Brewer's Mills, C.W. ; Mr. ANGLEMAN, at Philadelphia ; Mr. POINT, at Sandwich, C.W., and Philadelphia. Mr. RULE lives at Port Hope, C.W. In Philadelphia I also find families of FORCE, SIGN, and LINES. Lord Ellenborough, in 1818, wished that SARGEANT LENS might be his successor, — a decidedly astronomical name. Mr. LEVEL lived in Buffalo, N.Y., in 1855.

Logic is well represented in New York by Mr. SUCH, Mr. TEST, Mr. PLEDGE, Mr. QUEST, Mr. CLEU, and Mr. POSER. Mr. GIST was surveyor for the Ohio Company a hundred years ago. Mr. MOOD lives in Philadelphia. TEST is a common name there. Mr. METHOD lives in Quebec; and Mr. POZER, at St. George's, C.E. ORIGEN is a great name in the early Christian church.

Literature has its SCHOOLCRAFT, LEARNED, RIDDLE, MAXIM, GLOSS, SPELLMAN, WORDE (1642), QUILLMAN, WRITE (1648), GRAMMER; and READING, READ, SKANNING, SCRIBNER, SCOLLARD, SCRIVENER, PRINTY, USHER, SCHOULER, TOMES, LINES, RYMES, HEBARD, BARDWELL, and LAY. We have also NIBBS, MARKY, LABELL, CONN, SLATE, WAX, WAFER, &c. Perhaps Mr. SEAL belongs here, rather than among the specimens of animated nature. It is certain that Mr. SIGEL was wrecked in the "Central America" (1857). In New York I find MESSRS. SEAL, SEALS, SEALER, and SEALY.

Mr. SCRIVENER published a history of the iron trade. Sir HENRY SPELMAN was a distinguished antiquary. Mr. SCHOLER, of Iowa, subscribed for Agassiz' work. Mr. SHOOLBRED (i. e., "school-bred") is a graduate of Yale; as is also Mr. RIGHTER; both of whom spell their names in an illiterate manner. AUGUSTE EUGENE SCRIBE is a celebrated French dramatist. MESSRS. LETTERMAN subscribed for Chauchard's maps. Miss READING subscribed for Jones's "Miscellanies." Mrs. CENTLIVRE did not publish as many books as her name would indicate. Among German naturalists is BUCH (i. e., "book"). J. B. BUDGET has just published a treatise on tobacco, not on finance. Mr. CONOVER is Commissioner of the Board of Public Works in Ohio; and, in the New-York Directory, I find forty families of that name.

In England are families of STYLE, RYMER, POET, BARDS, SERMON, &c. THOMAS SERMON, Esq., subscribed for Chauchard's maps. Mrs. LAYE was a subscriber to the Macklin Bible. Mr. MUSE was, in 1849, assistant messenger in the navy office at Washington. Father COUPLET was one of the missionaries to China. THOMAS RYMER'S Works are as far as possible from being poetical. Rev. Mr. BARD lives at Freeport, Me.; Mr. BARDWELL, at Cambridge. There is a Dr. POET in San Francisco; and Mr. POET lives at Kingston, C.W. Mr. MAXHUM lives at Pomfret, Conn. Mr. MOTTOW, of Maine, sailed for Europe in a late steamer (1857). THOMAS IDYL was robbed in North Street in 1856. Mr. PARRADEE lives at Vergennes, Vt. Dr. SYNTAX has probably no representative out of the realms of fiction. Capt. STAMP was lately wrecked. Mr. GRAMMER and Mr. RIDDLE are both law-students at Harvard. Mr. TRUANT made a deed (L. 27, f. 261). Mr. TEACHEM lately died at Westport, Me. Mr. TEACHOUT lives in Essex, Vt.; and Mr. STILES, at Middleton, Conn. Perry's "Expedition to Japan" has been abridged by Mr. TOMES. One of the earliest printers was the celebrated *WYNKEN DE WORDE. Messrs. STOPPS, COMMAL, and COLON, all live in New York; where are also found families of BOOK, BOOKER, BOOKMAN, SCOLLARD, READER, READING, LETTER, LETTERMAN, PENWELL, PENMAN, QUILL, LARNER, PRIMER, LATTIN, UTTER, TROPE, STYLE, STYLES, PARCY, and MUSY, &c.

Mr. FABEL lives at Chatham, C.W.; and, in Philadelphia, there are four families of FABLE; also Messrs. MUSE and PARADEE. Mr. VERSEY lives at Canfield, C.W.; Mr. PENPRAISE, at Cobourg, C.W.; Mr. LEARN, at Ridgeway, C.W.; Mr. LINGO, at West Port, C.W., and at Philadelphia; Mr. SPELLIN, at Toronto. Mr. TUYPE, of that city, goes for printing. Mr. NIBBET seems to prefer manuscript. Both QUIRE and REAM are found in Philadelphia, and furnish writing materials. In that city I find also a Mr. WRIGHTER, nineteen families of RIGHTER, and eight families of ROAT; also eight families of BOOK, Mr. BOOKMAN, Mr. SPELL, Mr. SPELLBRINK, Mr. SPELLENBUCH, and two families of WORD. QUIL appears in the Buffalo Directory for 1855. Mr. BARRABLE ("parable?") lives in London (1858).

Miss LEDGER subscribed for Wild's Dramas (1805), having a business rather than a literary name.

Mr. BOOKSTORE, of Montreal, has been mentioned among names derived from edifices; but he is also entitled to a separate paragraph, as the very embodiment of literature.

Law has furnished many names of families; as BRASS (its raw material), WYLES, LAW, LAWS, LAW-LESS, COAD (73, f. 151), CODEY, COURT, LEET, ROLL, RECORD, DOCKET, CASE, TRAVERSE, LEVY, CHANCELLOR, MACE, JUDGE, JUSTICE, FOREMAN, SHERIFF, SHERIFFS, CONSTABLE, MARSHALL, BEADLE, CRIER, SUMNER* (i. e., "summoner"), WARNING, WARNER, WARN, SESSIONS, DUNN, DUNHAM, DUNNING, JEWETT, SEWALL, FEE, FINES, BAIL, LIEN, SEARCH, FERRITER, NABB, KETCHUM. Mr. GETUM lives at Toronto, C.W. Mr. FETCHEM appears in the Middlesex Records; also Mr. GREAVES. GREAVES's Miscellaneous Works appears on the Harvard Catalogue of 1773. I do not add LEYS to this collection; though it is justified by the conundrum, "Why is a lawyer like a person who cannot sleep at night?" — "Because he first lies on one side, and then lies on the other."

Mr. LEET lives at Brownington, Conn. Mr. LEETE is a graduate of Yale. GILES FIRMAN was appointed to serve writs, in 1641, at Ipswich. Mr. TESTE lives in Salem; and Mr. RECORDS, at Fall River. Messrs. DOE and ROE are not fictitious personages. Mr. WARRANT, Mr. ARGUE, and Mrs. COUNTSELL, all live in New York; as does also Mr. WRITMIRE, — a most suggestive name. J. G. FEE, of Madison, Ky., is a clergyman, having apparently mistaken his profession. PULLING and PYNCHON was an old law-firm in Salem, colloquially called PULLEM and PINCHEM. Mr. SHEARD, of Toronto, has a name appropriate to a patron of the law. Dane cites the law-cases of LEGAL, TITLE, FAIRTITLE, GOODTITLE, FETTER, &c. England has its family of CATCHPOLE. Messrs. BYE and LAW are a London publishing firm; and among the subscribers to the Macklin Bible are Mr. COURT, Mr. FOREMAN, and Mr. LAW. Mr. RULE was an author, who wrote in 1766. SHACKELL was a London printer in 1825. JAMES SUMMONS was sentenced to be hung in Ohio (1857). DANIEL W. COURTS is Treasurer of North Carolina (1856). Mr. BAILIEFF arrived here in a Cunard steamer (September, 1857). Mr. LAWMAN lives at Wellfleet, Mass. In New York I find families of DUN, DUNNER, DETTER, DUELY, ITTEM (“item”), LEGAL, &c.; also SACHELL, which seems to belong here, as a green bag was formerly a lawyer’s badge.

* CHARLES SUMNER is indeed a "summoner," whose warning voice in behalf of freedom and humanity will ring through the ages. There is no more pleasing incident recorded in the history of Massachusetts than his recent re-appointment, by an almost unanimous vote of her Legislature, to his high post of duty in the Senate of the nation.

Mr. BRASON lives at Walters Falls, C.W.; Mr. SUTTLE, at Toronto, C.W.; Mr. LATORNEY, at Kingston, C.W.; Mr. ARGUE, at Ashton, C.W.; and three families of that name are found in Philadelphia. Mr. JURY lives at Carp, C.W.; Mr. JUREY, at Prince Albert, C.W.; Mr. WRITT, at Kincora, C.W.; and both Mr. CATCHPOLE and Mr. WARRANT, at London, C.W. Mr. HANDGRAVE (i. e., "hand-greave," or "fetter") lives at Ste. Therese de Blainville, C.E.; Mr. SHACKELL, at Toronto; and Mr. RIVET, at St. Thomas, C.E. The Messrs. DEEDS, of Toronto and of Philadelphia, may be regarded as the representatives of conveyancing. Mr. SEARCH, of Stewarttown, C.W., and Mr. FLAWS, of St. Mary's, C.W., perhaps belong to the same department of the law.

In Philadelphia are families of BAILIFF, BILBOE, FETTER, FETTERS, FETCH, and COUGHT; MESSRS. SARCH, SERCH, and SEARCH; five families of TRIOL, and three families of FEES. I also find there families of JUSTUS, JUSTIS, JUSTICE, JUERY, and JURIST. LEX is a common name there. I find, likewise, Mr. RECORDS, and two families each of REGESTER and REGISTER. Among the graduates at West Point I find MESSRS. FETTERMAN, SITGREAVES, IRONS, and SHACKLEFORD.

Among Miss Jones's subscribers are Miss CASE, Mrs. FOREMAN, and Mr. TRAVERS. JOSEPH RUSE, Esq., subscribed for Chauchard's maps. A Dr. CODEx was distinguished for his high-church zeal in the time of Sir Robert Walpole. Among French writers, few have acquired greater popularity than SUE.

Gen. SHERIFFS was a subscriber to Thomson's "Seasons," uniting in himself both civil and military powers. Sir Walter Scott was involved by the failure of Mr. CONSTABLE. The law is supposed to be expensive; but among the latest English publications is one by Mr. SHILLINGLAW. Mr. SPARROW was a member of our bar in 1839. Mr. SPARHAWK (i. e., "sparrow-hawk") has a more appropriate name; as have also Mr. SHEARS, Mr. SHEARER, Mr. SKINNER, Mr. KEEN, and Mr. SCALEY. Mr. TRICK was permitted to serve on the Grand Jury (1674); and another of that name lives at Bowmanville, C.W. Mr. BLACKLAW lives in New York. Mr. CARLAW, of the same city, can give only travelling advice. Mr. GREENLAW would seem to be equally unreliable. If the law be viewed as one of the black arts, as was once suggested by the late Douglas Jerrold, it is a curious coincidence that its chief ministers are COKE and BLACKSTONE.

We have two names which seem amenable to the law, — Mr. SWINDLE, Mr. SWINDELL, and Mr. ROBB; and, unless Mr. SHARPER and Mr. TRICKEY are careful, their names will bring them into trouble. This last name is very common in Bangor; but it is not known whether the family own Eastern lands. Mr. HOOKER has also an equivocal name. SHARPEY'S "Human Anatomy" was published in London in 1848. Mr. TRICKER lives in Philadelphia.

CHAPTER XXIV.

NAMES FROM MONEY AND THRIFT, AND THEIR OPPOSITES.

MONEY has its representatives in families of MONEY, SCHATZ (German for "treasure"), FORTUNE, MEANS, COIN, COYNE, CASHMAN, CASH, CASHDOLLAR, FLUSH, TYLLS (1639), TILL, HOPPER, BILL, GOLD, GOULD, GOULDEN, GOLDEN, SILVER, SILLER, CROWN, MINTER, &c. For many years a suit of DUNHAM vs. CASHDOLLAR was pending in our courts. Mr. DE SILVER was a naval storekeeper in 1849. Mr. COPPERMAN, Mr. COPPERS, and Mr. GROTE, all appear in the New-York Directory; as do also Mr. MONY, Mr. MONEYPENNY, and Mr. MARKTHALER (or "mark-dollar"), Mr. THALER (German for "dollar"), Mr. BARNDOLLAR, Mr. BANK, and the analogous names, which it suggests, of Mr. BRITTELL and Mr. BURST. Miss COST was married in Boston, April 7, 1857. Mr. GOLDMAN, of Fulton City, Ill., became insolvent in 1857. Mr. RITCH is a graduate of Yale. RICH is a very common name. The late election resulted in the loss to Mr. POORE of a barrel of apples. By an exchange of currency, England has a MILL; while we have a PENNY, HAPENNY, HALF-

PENNY, PENCE, PENNIMAN, GROATE (1656), CROUNE (1660), STERLING, &c. A Mr. RUBLE, of Massachusetts, had his name changed in 1846. The Peruvian minister to this country, lost in the "Central America" (1857), was named SEQUIN. We have also SCHELLINX (i. e., "shilling"), MARK, MARKS, DUCKETT, and FRANC. Mr. MARKES lives in Fletcher, Vt. The families of TWOPENNY, FARTHING, and GROAT, however, have remained in England; and Mr. DUCAT is also found there. Dane cites the case of RUBLE. JOHN POUNDS established the ragged-school system. Mr. GROTE is the historian of Greece.

SOVEREIGN is found at Bronte, C.W., Paris, C.W., and at Wellington, C.W.; Mr. RYNO, at London, C.W.; Mr. TREADGOLD, at Toronto; Mr. RICHES, at Quebec; Mr. COSTLEY, at Camelford, C.W.; Mr. STIVER, at Buttonville, C.W.; Mr. GROAT, at Arkono, C.W., and at Calumet Island, C.E. JOHN FARTHINGS lives at Port Burwell, C.W.; Mr. REALS, at Cobourg, C.W. Perhaps Mr. POUND, of Quebec, belongs in this company.

In Philadelphia I find families of ARMGOLD, COFFRE, COIN, COST, SUMM; MESSRS. HEAP and HEAPS; three families of FORTEN, two of FORTIN, and three of FORTUNE; MESSRS. PENNYFATHER and PENNYPACKER; MESSRS. STIVER and STIVERS; Mr. BARRINGDOLLAR, Mr. FARTHING, and even Mr. CENT!

Mr. CHECK subscribed for Chauchard's maps. WILLIAM MILLIONS, one of Walker's "fillibusters," returned to New York utterly penniless (July, 1857). On the contrary, MARK BRUMMAGIM and Co. were consignees of fourteen thousand dollars in gold from California in October, 1857; and Mr. PINCHBECK lives in New York.

Thrift is represented by THRIFT, HOARD, HEAP, TYTE (1663), CLOSE, GLADWIN, GAIN, GAINER (1648), GAINOR, GANE, GARNER, STOCKWELL, WINN, PENSION, GETTINGS, PICKENS, PICUP, HOLDING, CRIBBIN, CRIBBY, MORE, MUCHEMORE, MUCHMORE, PAYE, LAND, LOVELAND, NOLAND, MICKLEFIELD, &c. One of the judges of Missouri is named LACKLAND. Mr. SCANTLAND was a midshipman in the year 1849. The Lieut.-Governor of Tobago is named SHORTLAND. Our Mr. HAVILAND seems to doubt about his real-estate investments. LITTLEFIELD is very common in all senses. Mr. MOREHOUSE lives at Highgate, Vt., and is also found among the graduates of Yale. Mr. GRIST left that institution in 1848. Mr. MANYPENNY is Agent for Indian Affairs. Mr. BORROW is a graduate of Yale. Mr. BORROWS is found in our late Probate Records. GEORGE BORROW is a well-known English author. One Mr. GAINS made a deed in L. 44, f. 274. Another Mr. GAINS lives at Willington, Conn. Our army has its Gen. GAINES. Mr. PICK lives at Providence, R.I.

We have, in Boston, a Miss CHARITY PICKENS. BEGG is a very common name in New York; where are also found BEGGS and BEGGINS, BARE and BARE-

MORE, FAILE and FAILING. Mr. MICKELL, of New York, subscribed for Agassiz' work ; as did also Mr. GETTY. In New York are found families of GETTER, GETTING, SMALPENNY, TYTE, PICKEN, PICK, and even MYSER. ENO (i. e., "enough") exists only in the Directory of New York ; and Mr. ERNALL, of that city, has the best name for attaining that object. That city has also families of FORTUNE, FORTUNATI, HEAP, HEAPE, HERITAGE, LUCRE, LONING, LENDER, PURSS, RYNO, RINO, SHINER, PENNEY, PENNY, SHILLING, PAER, PAYE ; and, on the other hand, I find SPENDER, WASTE, &c., and the names before enumerated (p. 21).

Mr. and Mrs. MONYPENNY both patronized Jones's "Miscellanies." MICKLE translated the "Lusiad." A Mr. SILVERSTONE, of Reading, Pa., failed (May, 1857) ; as did Messrs. BURSTALL and Co., of Quebec, in October following. Capt. BROKE subscribed for Chauchard's maps. We have our HOHN (L. 266) ; and Mr. HONE was former mayor of New York. WHETSTONE'S Works were published in 1586. Lieut.-Col. BAGWELL subscribed for Chauchard's maps. Mr. BAGWELL is a member of the British Parliament (1857). One of the British officers in the war against Napoleon was named PICKMORE. Mr. FORTUNE published his work on China in 1855. The late Hon. LEONIDAS SHAVER was Judge of Utah. Mr. SHEERS made a deed (L. 64, f. 203) ; and we have also the names of SHEERIN, SHEARIN, SHEARS, DOCKHAM, DOCKUM. Perhaps Mr. CLOSE belongs here, rather than among the fields. Mr. CLOSER was lost in the "Central America" (1857); and Mr. OWINGS then paid his last debt.

Dane cites the cases of SHEERS, GRINDSTONE, and TYTE. Mr. TITE lives in London (1858); also Mr. MEISER. Messrs. BIGLAND and DIVES subscribed for Wild's Dramas (1805). We have KAMMERER (German for "treasurer"). In England live families of PROFIT, SAVEALL, SHAVEALL, SCRAPESCIN, SELF, TREASURE, and TREASURER: this latter name is that of the most lucrative of all modern employments. I once heard of a person's remarking, "If I am only the executor of a will, I don't care who are the legatees." Mr. SAKE, of New York, pursues his trade of a butcher, probably for his own sake; and I find, in the Directory of that city, no less than six families of SELF. Mr. EGO ("I") of Pepperlaw, C.W., has a selfish name. Mr. OWNES lives at Toronto. C.W.; and Mr. EACHMAN, at Philadelphia.

Mr. SPARY, Mrs. TIGHT, and Mr. SLICER, all live in Montreal; Mr. PINCH, at Bowmanville, C.W. SHAVER is a very common name in Canada, as at Ancaster, &c., Iroquois, C.W. In sports we have also KYTE, TOPP, TOY, SCATES, BOWLES, BOWLER, BALL, and BALLS; also FOWLER, WINSHOT (1640), GUNNING, &c. Mr. KEITT, of South Carolina, is member of Congress (1857). Miss MARY TOPP was among us as early as 1653. The most celebrated beauties in English society in the last century were the two Irish Miss GUNNINGS. A suit is pending (1856) between AMES and SPARROW. Our Mr. DODAVAH SCATES has, in all respects, a peculiar name. The Chief Justice of Illinois is named SCATES. B. D. SLEIGHT is an undergraduate of Yale. Mr. TOURNEY, of Tennessee, is a U. S. Senator. DITCH.* Mr. WARDWELL has a good name for resistance. By a singular coincidence, I do not find the name of PEACE anywhere in Massachusetts, except in Salem. It is, however, found in New York; and, in Philadelphia, there are three families of PEACE, and Mr. PEACEPORT. CHAPTER XXX.

NAMES FROM DISEASES; MEDICINES; AND DRINKING NAMES.

FROM diseases we have the names FITT (1673), FITTS, FITZ, SECIC, BYLES, BILYE, AIKEN, AYLING, RICKETTS, GOUTIER, BANE, BANES, BAIN, WENBANE (1645), FATAL, &c.* Dr. BADARAGUE ("bad-air ague?") died in Boston Harbor (October, 1857). In England are found families of HEADACHE, CRAMP, FEVER, AGUE, AIKMAN, AKENSIDE, BUNYAN, and even GUMBOIL and PIMPLE. Mr. BAYNE is a distinguished English author. Mr. MANGE is consul for Belgium at New York. PILES's "Lives of Painters" is recommended in the Harvard Catalogue of 1773. Mr.

* QUINCY I do not add to my list of diseases; for that name is borne by one among us who unites the fire of youth to the wisdom of age. Like the monarch of the forest, still crowned with verdure, in him is fulfilled the promise of Holy Writ, "His leaf also shall not wither." It is needless to add, that I refer to Hon. JOSIAH QUINCY, late President of Harvard College.

GUMBELL and Mr. BOILS live in New York ; and Mr. GLANDER, of New York, has also an unpleasant name. I find there, likewise, families of SICK, SICKMAN, LEFEVER, MEASEL, PILES, POCK, TWITCHINGS, TUMER ; three families of WART, two of WARTS, two of WARTMAN ;* also WORTT, WORTS, WORTMAN, WENNING, WENMAN, and WHITELOW (i. e., “whitlow?”).

LEPPER is a very common name in Canada, at Aurora, C.W., St. Catherine’s, C.W., Toronto, C.W., &c. Three families of CRAMP live in Montreal ; also Mr. SURGEON and Mr. PATIENT. This latter name, perhaps, indicates a gentle disposition. Messrs. WHITLAW and FELON also live there. FELON may, perhaps, be traced to a more questionable origin than a mere bodily ailment. Mr. FLUX lives at Kingston, C.W. ; Mr. MESILL, at Snow Village, C.W. ; Mr. KAUFFMAN, at Toronto, C.W., where I also find Messrs. SORELY, WARTY, WHITELOW, and WITHERON.

In Philadelphia are families of AKE, ACHE, AKENS, AKEY, ACHEY, AKER, and AKIN, — a most numerous delegation ; Mr. WART ; two families of DROPSIE ; fourteen families of CRAMP ; Mr. COFFMAN, Mr. STAGERS, Mr. VITUS (“St. Vitus’s dance?”), Mr. ILLMAN ; Messrs. SICK, SICKMAN, and SICKLING.

In Buffalo, N.Y., in 1855, were families of FESTER, PRICKLE (before mentioned), PHARNAMBUCEY (“pharmacy?”), and NEWBACK. Mr. LIVER, of that city, is probably descended from one who had that organ diseased. A letter addressed to THOMAS PILLING was advertised at the Pottsville post-office, Dec. 31, 1857.

Mr. HEADEACH was a subscriber to the Macklin Bible.

As an offset to these names, we have TRUSS, SET-RIGHT, POTTECARY, LEACH, LEECH, HEALEY, HEAL, HEALD, WELLMAN, WOMBWELL, BLOODGOOD, MIXER, MESSER, PILLSBURY, SETON, WORMWOOD, GARLICK, HARTSHORN, TANSEY, MARJORAM, MULLEN, CRUSE (L. 229), KRUSE, &c.

In London I find (1858) families of HADROT and PILBEAM; SWEATMAN and DIETMAN; Mr. CRUTCH; and, as a matter of course, Mr. MOTION, &c. The MEDICI family is one of the most eminent in history. Disease and health seem to be contending in the suit of COUGHAMOUR vs. BLOODGOOD, reported 27 Penn. State Rep. 285. A Mr. MIX was a Harvard graduate: others of the name now live at New Haven, and at Warren, Vt. Mrs. MESSUM is a nurse in New York. A Mr. PILLING is found at Stockbridge, and another at Lynnfield. Mr. PELLETT lives in Spencer. Mr. STILLWELL lives at Fall River, Mass; and there was in our navy, in 1849, a midshipman of that name. MOTHERWELL'S Poems are familiar to us all. Mr. MOTHERWELL lives at Stratford, C.W. CRUISE'S "Digest" is one of the best text-books of English law. CRUISE'S Poems were published in 1857 in England; and LEADBITTER is found there. Mr. VIGOR, and even Mr. HEALTH himself, lives in New York; where are also found families of PILL, SALTS, TINGLE, and WEL. Mr. WELLER (not Samuel) also lives there. In England are families of PILLEY, PURGE, &c. Lieut.-Col. CURE was wounded at the assault on the Redan. There was a JOHN SODA in Queen Elizabeth's time. Dr. TOOTHAKER, of Middlesex County, is a general practitioner, not a mere dentist. Mr. PRICKETT, a midshipman in our navy (1849), probably never wielded the lancet. Dr. BUMP, of Freetown, is not exclusively a surgeon; nor was Mr. THOMAS BUMP, of Bristol County, a mere criminal lawyer. This family is widely extended. Thus Mrs. PATIENCE J. BUMP lives in Mantua, Ohio.

Habits of intemperance are so fruitful a cause of disease, that names derived from these two sources may well be classed together.

Besides the numerous list of drinking names alluded to in p. 21, we have INMAN, DRYMAN, TAVERNER, BIBBINS, TIFT, TAPLEY, POTTLE (L. 618, f. 47), CORDIAL, GINN (L. 439, f. 100), CORKER, SHERRY,

A vast number of surnames are derived from Christian names by the prefix of AP, MAC, or FITZ; or by the addition of SON at the end; or of COCK, used as a diminutive (as, "my little cock"). Thus ADAM gives us ADAMS, &c.; ANDREW gives ANDREWS, &c.; BENJAMIN gives BENSON (perhaps BENISON is also thus derived); DAVID gives DAVIDS, DAVIS, DAVIES, DAVIDSON, DAVISON; EDWARD gives EDSON; ELEANOR gives NELSON; HUGH gives HUGHES, HUSE, &c.; ISAAC gives ISAACKS, HISCOCK, &c.; JACOB gives JACOBS; JOHN gives JONES, JACKSON, JOHNSON, JACK, &c., and even HANCOCK; NATHAN gives NATHANSON; NICHOLAS gives NICHOLS; OLIVER gives NOLL; PETER gives PETERS, PETERSON, and even PERKINS, PIERCE, PARR, &c.; RICHARD gives RICHARDS, RICHARDSON, DICK, DICKS, DIX, DICKSON, DIXON, DICKMAN, &c.; ROBERT gives ROBERTS, ROBERTSON, ROBINSON, &c. BABSON is perhaps BOBSON. SAUL gives SAULS; STEPHEN gives STEVENS, STEVENSON, STEPHENSON, &c.; SAMUEL gives SAMUELS, SAMPSON. THOMAS gives THOMPSON, TIMOTHY, TIMSON, &c.; WILLIAM gives WILLIAMS, WILLIAMSON, BILSON, &c.

The firm of FITSHUGH and LITTLEJOHN, of Oswego, failed in 1857. A Mr. JACK is a graduate of Yale. This name popularly indicates a lack of intellect. PAULSEN ("Paul's son") is the American Philidor. He played at one time (October, 1857), in New York, five games of chess, blindfolded, beating in four of them; the fifth being a drawn game; evincing a power of abstraction and memory unparalleled in the history of the world. Ten families of MOLSON live in Montreal; Mr. PETERKIN, at Toronto, C.W.; and in Philadelphia are families of AARONSON, ALBERTSON, PETERWHARF, &c. I find, in 1828, a Mr. SAMS, of Darlington, England.

BARRY and PARRY are both supposed to be derived from AP HARRY, AUSTIN from ST. AUGUSTINE, HODGES from ROGER, HALLET from ALLAN, TUDOR from THEODORE, TIMMINS from TIMOTHY, EVERETT from EVERARD, ELLIS from ELIAS; and BRYANT, DURANT, DODD, EDDY, EDES, GOODWIN, HAMMOND, HARDING, HARVEY, SEARLE, SEWALL, and WARNER, are all said to be derived from obsolete Christian names. CRADOCK is from the Welsh Christian name CARADOC.

Many names, derived from the Saxon or other sources, are made up of endings or parts which had an appropriate meaning. Thus COTT is an abbreviation of "cottage;" ENDICOTT, "cottage at the end;" MIDDLECOTT, &c.; PRESCOTT, or "priest's cottage." Perhaps, however, this stands for "prest-coat," derived from a tailor. BRAD means "broad;" and ING, "a meadow;" BRADING, "broad meadow." ING also means "progeny;" as in DEARING, &c. HAME, or HAM, means "a home," "farm," or "a village;" as, CUNNINGHAM, BRIGHAM. SALL means "a hall;" as, INGERSALL,* "meadow hall." BURY, "a house;" as, BRADBURY, &c. FORD and BRIDGE; as, SANDFORD or SANFORD, and the seats of the two great universities, — Oxford and Cambridge. BRADFORD is one of our first names. PONT means “a bridge ;” as in PIERPONT, WOODBRIDGE. FORTH means “a way ;” as, DANFORTH. THROP, or THROPE, means “a village ;” as, WINTHROP, “wine village.” LEDGE or LIDGE ; as, COOLIDGE, &c. DIKE or DITCH ; as, THORNDIKE, BABBIDGE or BABBAGE, BOWDITCH. SHAW, “a small, shady wood ;” as, BRADSHAW : it is itself one of our chief names. CROFT, “a little enclosure near a house ;” as, BANCROFT. WOLD, “a plain ;” as, GRISWOLD. BECK and BURN, “a small stream ;” as, BROADBECK, BECKFORD or BICKFORD, WASHBURN, COLBURN, BLACKBURN, TROUTBECK, &c. LEE, LEA, LAY or LEY, LEIGH, LEITH or LETH, “a field,” or “pasture ;” as, BRADLEE, BRINLEY, WALLEY, BAYLEY, EVELETH, &c. KAMPE or KEMP, from “campus,” a plain or field. WOOD ; as, HARWOOD, UNDERWOOD, ATWOOD, &c. HURST or BOSK, “a small wood ;” as, ASHHURST, PARKHURST. WIE or WICH, “a village” or “a bay ;” as, HARDWICK, NORWICH. HILL ; as, CHURCHILL, UNDERHILL, &c. LING, “a pool from which a river flows ;” as, HAMLING or HAMLIN. MERE, “a lake ;” as, LECHMERE, &c. STEAD or STED, “a shore” or “place ;” as, BURCHSTEAD, BUMSTEAD, &c. STAN, STANE, or STONE ; as, BLACKSTONE. KNAPP, “a protuberance ;” as, BELKNAP. NETT, abbreviation of “nettle ;” as, BENNETT. LOW means “a flame or fire,” “a head,” “a small hill,” or “gentle rise of ground ;” as, BIGLOW, WINSLOW, &c.

TON means "a hedge" or "wall," but is often probably used as TOWN; as, APPLETON, MILTON, &c. DEN, "a valley" or "woody place;" as, HAMPDEN. LAIR or LAER; as, VAN RENSSELAER. MARSH is very common; and we have TIDMARSH (i. e., "tide-marsh"), &c. BRAY, "a bank of earth;" BURY or BURG, and CHAR or CAR, "a city;" VALE or VALL, DALE or DALL, POOL or POLL, are all parts of our surnames. Also WATER; as in Atwater, &c.

Many names end with STREET, GATE, TREE, WAY, &c.; as, BRADSTREET, SOUTHGATE, SHUMWAY, &c. Mrs. WESTGATE, of New York (May, 1858), is the great poisoner of the century.

END itself is sometimes the end of a surname; as in TOWNSEND, &c.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

NAMES ORIGINATING IN MISTAKE; TRANSLATED; CHANGED; &c.

MANY names are undoubtedly the mere result of mistake or mis-spelling. A late resident officer of our Hospital informs me that he has received bills made out against the institution, in which that word has been spelt in forty-six different ways, a list of which he sends me. In 1844, one* JOSEPH GALLIANO died in Boston; and, in our Probate Records, he has the alias of JOSEPH GALLON, — that having been his popular name. PLAMBOECK, in some of our conveyances, became PLUMBACK. These are names in a transition state. So likewise a Spanish boy, having the Christian name of BENITO, pronounced Beneeto, who shipped with Dr. Bowditch in one of his voyages (as mentioned in his Memoir, 1839), became BEN EATON;* and a foundling, named PERSONNE (i. e., “nobody”), became Mr. PEARSON. Perhaps our BARNFIELD is but a corruption of the glorious old Dutch name BARNEVELDT. JACQUES BEGUIN, of Texas, as we learn from Olmstead, became JOHN BACON. The firm of WEHLE and WENIGER, in Roxbury, might easily be thus transmuted to VEAL and VINEGAR. BELLOWS is supposed to be a corruption of DE BELLE EAU. The family crest represents "water poured from a chalice into a basin." The "beautiful waters" of Bellows Falls will for ever appropriately commemorate the name and home of the founder of this family in our country.* In one part of East Boston, chiefly occupied by Irish laborers, the streets are named for the poets Byron, Southey, Wordsworth, &c. ALEXANDER WADSWORTH is a surveyor well known to many of those residents, no one of whom, probably, ever heard of the Sage of Grasmere; and, in the deeds of their lots, the surveyor has very generally, carried the day. Mr. CISCO is Sub-treasurer of New York. This family originated in a foreigner named JOHN FRANCISCO, who, for brevity, voluntarily changed his signature to JOHN F. CISCO. Europe has a similar name in Rev. F. G. LISCO, of Berlin.

* See Memoir prefixed by me to the “Mécanique Céleste.”

Many foreign names are entirely altered by translation. Thus PIERPONT would be STONEBRIDGE. And, if not translated, they often wholly lose their original significance. Thus the German GUTMAN should be GOODMAN; KRAFT, SINN, and LUST should be STRENGTH, MEANING, PLEASURE, &c. In the London Directory of 1858 are the names of GUT and GUTKIND (i. e., "good" and "good child"). GOODCHAP, in plain * See "History of the Bellows Family," by Rev. HENRY W. BELLOWS, D.D., of New York.

English, is found in their company. A French family of BLANCHPIED, settled in Essex County, has had its name both translated and corrupted, — ending in families of WHITEFOOT and BLUMPEY ; and a German named RÜBSUM, who emigrated to Charleston, S. C., became, by translation, Mr. TURNIPSEED. It is not only gravely asserted, but is considered to be proved, that the French “jour” is derived from the Latin “dies,” through the changes of diurno, journo, jour. Many grotesque names are known to have been given to foundlings. A female infant left at a house in Otis Place, Boston, in 1856, was called MARY Otis ; and one left in an outbuilding in Brookline, in 1856, was appropriately named FANNY SHED.

Many other names have, from time to time, been silently changed. Thus the BLAGUE family, of this county, became BLAKE ; EVEREDD was altered to WEBB ; FITZPEN became PHIPPEN. It is said that NYE ended in NOYES. Other names are pronounced so differently from the mode in which they are spelt as to be hardly recognized. Like the coin of a country, they are universally clipped and worn. Thus the English names of CHOLMONDELEY, BROUGHAM, HAWORTH, AUCHINLECK, MOHUN, and COCKBURN, are CHUMLEY, BROOM, HORTH, AFFLECK, MOON, and COBURN ; and a fellow-collegian from the South, Mr. TALIAFERRO, was Mr. TOLLIVER, &c. Our own THUOLT, of Hungarian origin, is pronounced TOTE. Such names, in the course of time, often become spelt as they are pronounced. Thus PUTNAM is supposed to be PUTTENHAM; FROTHINGHAM, to be FOTHERINGHAM, &c. PULTENHAM still exists as an English name. SNOOKS is known to be an abbreviation of SEVEN-OAKS. CROWNINSHIELD was formerly popularly called GROUNDSELL; and this name is found in New York. ST. JOHN is pronounced SINJOHN; and that name is common in Canada. The letter "D" is almost universally cut off. Thus Cold Lane, in Boston, became Cole Lane; and we have the name of COLBURN (i. e., "cold stream"). Mr. COLEGROVE, of Middletown, Mass., and Mr. COLWELL, of Philadelphia, subscribed for Agassiz' work.

Very many names were annually changed by authority of the General Court, sometimes decidedly for the better, but often with little or no improvement. It is a remarkable circumstance, that since the jurisdiction of this matter has been given to the Judges of Probate in the respective counties, so that sufferers in name can no longer claim the sympathy of the whole Commonwealth, the number of those who apply to the law for relief is very small.

A mere abstract of the names changed by the Legislature would be very amusing. Thus we find BROADBROOKS, 1805; SNUPE, 1806; BUMSIDE,* 1807;

* A distinguished lawyer of Middlesex County, named BURNSIDE, disliking his Christian name, applied for leave to change it; and, as he wrote a bad hand, it was supposed that he wished to change his surname also into BUMSIDE. The change was made accordingly; and, after suffering a year's penance, it became again necessary to ask legislative aid.

LINKHORNEW, 1800; FRICKEY, 1824; TINK, 1826; SLATE, 1827; CROUCH, 1832; TURN, 1837; FEACHEM, 1845; PEDDER, 1847; &c. Mr. PEPPER MIXER, in 1810, retained his surname, while he parted with his Christian name. Mr. THODE COATS, in 1814, followed his example. SAMUEL QUINCE WHITEFOOT, on the contrary, in 1833, liked his Christian name, and merely dropped the foot. An entire family of CORPORAL, in 1847, laid aside that dignity; and a very numerous family of VEST divested themselves in 1848. Mr. THOMAS JEST, in 1850, decided that it was no joke to retain such a name any longer. Mr. GEST, of Cincinnati, however, as lately as 1857, subscribed for Agassiz' work. Mr. MOCK, in this mode, escaped from the mockeries of his friends (L. 241, f. 36).

CHAPTER XXXIV.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

CONCLUDING REMARKS. — WORDS DERIVED FROM NAMES.

I HAVE now completed my desultory remarks on the subject of surnames. In classifying them, I have sometimes regarded their apparent rather than their actual derivations and original meanings. In some instances, as I well know, my analogies have been more fanciful than real. I was led to prepare these remarks by an article in the "Edinburgh Review" for April, 1855; and my attention was subsequently called to a little treatise on surnames, privately printed in the year 1856, by B. Homer Dixon, Esq., which I found very interesting and suggestive. After I had completed my collection, Lower's elaborate essay furnished me with additional illustrations. Had I seen these publications at an earlier period, the great extent of the subject would have deterred me altogether.

Many words in our language are derived from names either of ancient gods or heroes, &c. Thus we have martial from Mars, the god of war; cereal, from Ceres, the goddess of fruits; bacchanalian, from Bacchus, the god of the wine-cup. An epicure is a most familiar word and person. Poetry deals in boreal blasts, æolian strains, and gentle zephyrs. We may speak with propriety of a village Vulcan. Hercules may never have existed; but herculean, augean, &c., are indisputable exponents of his labors. Historical allusions are endless. We speak of Vandalism, of a modern Brutus, of the Nestor of an assembly, of a Xantippe, of a Platonic attachment, of a Ciceronian style, of a Shakspearian or Spenserian stanza, of the Byronic school of poetry, of an Augustan age of literature, a Machiavellian policy, a Jeremiad, &c. We have also the adjective Elizabethan. We have Calvinism, Arianism, and Mesmerism. Pasquinade is derived from Pasquino, a Roman cobbler. Munchausen will always be the type of lying travellers. Ferdinand Mendez Pinto begins to have a better reputation for veracity than he had in Shakespeare's day. Patronage will always have its representative in Mæcenas, and Cræsus will never be displaced by any modern Rothschild. Sometimes the name is preserved, but with a bad sense affixed to it; thus working positive, and not merely negative, injustice. For instance, Hector, Hectoring, are terms equivalent to bully, blustering. Indeed, the very goddess of grace and beauty herself has but given a name to the most loathsome of diseases. Gibberish is said, by the Reviewer to whom I have referred, to be derived from Geber, the alchemist. Earl Spencer and Lord Raglan will each be remembered by an outside garment; and Sir William Congreve, by his rockets. The names of other persons are still preserved in popular phrases; such as, "Before I could say Jack Robinson;" and "My eye and Betty Martin." But who were they?

No men or women have more truly lived than those described in some works of fiction; and, from some of these, various words have been derived. The hero of La Mancha figures in every Quixotic enterprise; and lawyers and politicians daily abuse each other in a Pickwickian sense. Shylock stands forth for ever the embodiment of avarice.

Discoverers and inventors have not always had justice done them in the matter of nomenclature. Thus America* is named for one who did not discover it, — a flagrant wrong which poetry in vain attempts to address in "Hail, Columbia, happy land," &c. A short name stands a much better chance of commemoration than a long one; and yet Daguerre is immortalized in the daguerreotype. Dr. Guillotin, acting from a benevolent purpose of producing insensibility to pain under peculiarly disagreeable circumstances, will go down to posterity as a monster of cruelty. Persons rendered insensible by ether, during surgical operations, ought to be spoken of as Mor- tonized. We speak of Macadamized roads; and, in this latitude, we hear of the Nicolson pavement. Science has its voltaic battery; and the verb to galvanize is very expressive, and entirely legitimate beyond the limits of science: but Fulton's name will never supersede the more significant word steamer.

* This name has been lately vindicated quite ingeniously as derived from the Italianized form of the German "Emmerich," which is regarded as a contraction of the Gothic "Airmanareiks;" and, as applied to a country, is considered as meaning "Most sublime dominion." — B. Homer Dixon.

Celebrated events of mythology and history are thus perpetuated. We speak familiarly of "crossing the Rubicon," of "an apple of discord," of "Pandora's box," &c. American editors thought, till the fall of Sebastopol, that the Russian would prove as long as the Trojan war. Marathon and Thermopylæ belong to the geography of freedom. The Colossus may be a myth; but we have colossal. Such is the origin of many of our proverbial aphorisms. Words are sometimes coined with a general signification from particular striking instances of the conduct which they describe; as, nepotism. Some crimes are of such atrocity, that the perpetrator's name is at once appropriated to them. Thus, to murder for the sake of selling the dead body is to Burke; so the systematic species of secret murder, extensively practised in India, has enriched the language with Thug. The summary proceedings of Judge Lynch have also given us a new word. If we had not already the verb "to humbug," Barnum would, I think, stand a very fair chance of verbal immortality.

Squatter has, with us, its appropriate signification of a possessor or actual occupant of lands without title. The subject of squatter sovereignty, indeed, just now bids fair to be one of fearful national importance. Pecuniary defaulters are so numerous that no one has yet given his own name to the process. Even the verb to Swartwout or Schuylerize has not yet forced its way into our language. The public is better pleased with the more general term, "to absquatulate." This expression, by its elegance, reminds one of the popular names of localities. Jeffrey spent his summer months at Stuckgown. In Danvers, Mass., is, or was, a spot known as "The Devil's Dishful." The town of "Backbone" is found in Arkansas; "Bad Axe," in Wisconsin; "Why Not," in Mississippi." The Post-office Directory contains the towns of "Bad Track" and "Broken Road," "Blue-Black" and "Yellow-Red," "Coffin-Grove" and "Dead-Man's Hollow," &c.; and, among the recent mining nomenclature of California, I find "Rot-Gut," "Hen-Peck City," "Louse Village," "Ragtown," "Shirt-tail Bend," "Hell's Delight," &c. To Scotch ears, "Bannockburn" has glorious associations; and the "Brandywine" is not the least of our rivers. We have had also our battle of the "Cowpens."

Politics give a temporary significance to the most absurd and grotesque party designations, — "Silver Greys," "Hard Shells," "Softs," "Old Hunkers," "Locos," "Know Nothings," &c. How instantly do the public take any allusion to Gov. Marcy's "pantaloons," or to Scott's "hasty plate of soup"! The simple words, "so much noise and confusion," have a marked significance as applied to political epistles. "The Law-and-Order Party" is but another name for Missouri Border Ruffians.

Science and art, in all their various branches and departments, are constantly creating new words. Prof. Treadwell, in a recent admirable pamphlet, suggests the reflection how impossible it would now be to write in the language of Cicero the most elementary treatise on mechanics or geology. While on the one hand, therefore, the names of persons may often possess much value and importance as indicating the origin of the various families, and thus of the nation which they together compose; on the other hand, the words in use in any language throw great light on the national character, indicating, in an unerring manner, its social peculiarities, its degree of advancement in knowledge, virtue, and refinement; besides often indicating its remote origin, and affording a means of approximately estimating the proportions in which its heterogeneous elements have at last become mingled together and consolidated.

The seemingly barren field of philology has been traversed by many an enthusiastic inquirer after truth, whose researches have enriched the literature of Europe and America. And the few additional materials now faithfully collected may perhaps, in a slight degree, facilitate future investigations in a corresponding department of knowledge.

NOTES.

PAGE.

9. For "Dr. DOX" read "Mr. DOX."
10. For "BAL" read "BAB." Add to the New-York names of three letters, FEI, FEY, FIX, FOK, FOS, FUX, HAN, HAU, HIX, HOF, HON, HOR, HOU, HOY.
15. The authors of "The Anatomist's Hymn" and of "Thanatopsis" cannot, with propriety, be ranked below a writer of even the exquisite taste of Longfellow. Perhaps, indeed, it would have been safer for me to have mentioned all the poets alphabetically.
16. For "CLAVARS" read "CLAVARA;" for "STIDMAN" read "STIDMON;" and add to the specimens of Christian names there given the following: PELEG, MURCH, OMEN, DEDRUM, DIMIS, DELIGHT, EIGENA, FLORILLA, ROSETTA, JULEL.

DEBONAIR FARRAR died in Boston, March 14, 1858; and Mrs. DUTY PHETTYPLACE, in Woonsocket, R.I., in May, 1858. One of our citizens has the Christian name of TRUEWORTHY MUCHMORE; and ZEALOUS BATES, Esq., lives at Cohasset (1858). The late report of the English Registrar-General gives us the name of Mr. ELI LAMA SABACHTHANI PRESSNAIL.

18. } Mr. RODOLPHUS SPALDING will doubtless be satisfied with
19. } being once named.
20. We have Mr. SEPTIMUS NORRIS.

24. For "Lockport, C.W.," read "Lockton, C.W." For "Chandos's" read "Chauchard's."
39. The classic name of REMUS is found in the Buffalo Directory for 1855 ; and WILLIAM TELL lives at Peoria, Ill. (1858).
44. Mr. PRRSCH is in the Directory of Peoria, Ill. (1858).
48. Mr. MARTYR subscribed for Wild's Dramas (1805).
56. For "AUSTIS" read "ANSTISS."
60. Mr. STRAY lives at Hartford, Conn.
66. Mr. HOPEWELL's house, in Catland, Ind., was burnt in May, 1858.
72. MARY CLACKER was before our courts (May 6, 1858).
81. Mr. THYNNE and Mr. SMALLBONE live in London (1858). One of the most striking monuments in Westminster Abbey is that of a Mr. THYNNE, who was distinguished for his wealth and his — assassination.
87. Our Mr. HEMMER made a deed (L. 728, f. 283) : he should be added to SNIFFEN, HAWKINS, &c.
88. Miss ELLEN BACKOFF consented to be married in Boston, May 2, 1858.
92. Our Mr. CHILDREN made a deed (L. 651, f. 173).
108. There is a KITTEN in the Boston Directory, whom (which?) I had overlooked.
116. I owe Mr. FEATHERHOFF an apology for mentioning his failure twice.
141. For "BACKALL" read "BACALL" (i. e., "bake all").
150. A young friend writes me, May 3, 1858 : "The fires of disension and enmity in the SMOKE family appear to have broken out last year in an action of trespass to try title brought by Andrew Smoke vs. James D. Smoke: Richardson's S.C. Reports, vol. xiv. p. 433. — Yours, &c., S. M. QUINCY."

Thus my present attempt at authorship may be said to end in Smoke.

PAGE.

176. MR. BATTING's factory (not a cotton factory), at Newark, N. J., was burnt in May, 1858.
177. PETER FLARE lives in Middletown, Md. (1858).
183. FREDERICK SEAQUILL was before our courts, in the month of May, 1858.
223. Featherstonhaugh's "Canoe Voyage," &c., London, 1847, mentions a Mr. SLIT as having been long in the employ of the Hudson's-Bay Company.
240. For "WESTGATE" read "WESTLAKE." Thus altered, the name should have appeared in p. 133; though the transposition would put Sir CHARLES EASTLAKE into very bad company.
243. For "diurno, journo," read "diurnal, journal."
248. MR. RIST should precede MR. HAND (p. 50). MR. NEE, of page 10, may also be mentioned here. MR. SIDEBOTHER, of Milwaukie, was a passenger in a Cunard steamer, June 16, 1858.
249. } Several names, such as STOKES, STROBLE, and TRAILL,
253. } though extant, are nearly extinct in Boston.
254. I received a printed sheet entitled "Monthly Catalogue of efficient and reliable Lawyers, for May, 1858," which, I am gratified to observe, is a very large one. I extract from it the following specimens:—
- SMOOTE, of Magnolia, Ark.; CHAIN, of Milton, Fla.; CULVERHOUSE, of Knoxville, Ga.; EZZARD, of Atlanta, Ga.; MOBLEY, of Hamilton, Ga.; HARDEMAN, of Clinton, Ga.; HARROW, of Lawrence, Ill.; SUIT, of Frankfort, Ind.; FUSELIER, of St. Martinsville, La.; REASONS, of M'Nutt, Miss.; WALKUP, of Wapakoneta, Ohio; COFFINBERRY, of Findlay, Ohio; GARROTT, of Marion, Ala.; CUNNING, of Port Washington, Wis.; PULLUM, of Pickens, S.C.; and DEUEL, of Stockbridge, Wis. MR. LOVING, of Bowling Green, Ky., seems to be out of place among these associates.

PAGE.

254. Boston may boast of being the native place of one most "efficient and reliable lawyer," — JOHN SINGLETON COPLEY (Lord Lyndhurst), — now eighty-six years old, late Lord Chancellor of England. A few months since, he was elected a member of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Our venerable associate, Mr. QUINCY, mentioned, on this occasion, a family tradition, that the same nurse successively attended upon the mothers of Lord Lyndhurst and himself, who were confined about the same time. Her touch seems to have imparted to both infants an almost unprecedented degree of mental and physical vigor. Since Romulus and Remus, indeed, there has probably never been a more remarkable pair of nurslings.
39. For "Oriquois" read "Iroquois."

During the interval required for preparing the Alphabetical Index, the following names have come under my notice: —

CYPRIAN, notwithstanding its objectionable meaning, has been often used as a Christian name: as CYPRIAN SOUT HACK, a hundred and fifty years ago; CYPRIAN HALL, 1857, L. 718, f. 115.

The estate of Mr. AMOS POTAMIA, of Reading, was lately administered upon. Mr. BLACKMOORE is the translator of a "History of the Russian Church." Capt. TRUEBLOOD, of the schooner "D. V. Sessums," from Baltimore to North Carolina, was wrecked May 18, 1858. In the recent wholesale railroad bribery of the Legislature of Wisconsin, Mr. WHIPPERMAN, a member of the Assembly, is stated to have received, as his share, bonds for five thousand dollars. Perhaps he was the whipper-in of his associates. In 1 Duer's Rep. 354 (New York), is reported the case of "FATMAN vs. LOBACK." Rev. C. P. GOLIGHTLY (England) has recently made charges against the Cuddesdon Theological College. The Kit-Cat Club was so called from its first meetings being held at the shop of a pastry-cook named CHRISTOPHER CAT, in Shire Lane, who was celebrated for his meat-pies. A Miss BRADFIELD (i.e., Broadfield) was in our hospital in May, 1858.

In 1855, certain loan-fund associations were established by law ; and their organizations, with lists of the shareholders, are recorded. Thus I find in L. 667, f. 170, Messrs. DEA and GLADSON ; in L. 667, f. 267, COURIER, WORTH, ANGER, BIBBER, OXFORD, WRYMILL, and MACBETH ; in L. 667, f. 297, CHATER, HIGHT, and HAGGART ; in L. 667, f. 58, HOLEMAN ; in L. 673, f. 157, FREEZE and SURGES ; in L. 674, f. 192, SINGLE and PROUD-FOOT ; in L. 676, f. 129, LARGE and RIGGERS ; in L. 679, f. 177, HERO ; in L. 682, f. 72, READHEAD and KUX ; in L. 683, f. 149, BUTTERWORTH ; in L. 684, f. 66, BUTT and GALL ; in L. 687, f. 268, BASIN and FULSOM ; also SAMUEL WELLER, of Taunton, Mass. Further researches may perhaps enable me to add Mr. PICKWICK to my names connected with LAMPS, &c. In one of these instruments, recorded in L. 677, f. 203, I find MICHAEL SPINE, of Roxbury, and the following residents of Boston ; viz., WILLIAM KIDNEY and WILLIAM BRANE, JOHN BIGGIN and JOHN BROOM, ANNA MUNCH and LAWRENCE INKHORN ! It is by no means an act of surplusage to state that PATRICK SURPLUSS is party to a deed in Norfolk County.
